Various Places Around The Magazine

Even in these days of perpetual inflation, when a manufacturer wants to tack a whopping price increase onto his product, he is still fearful of encountering buyer resistance. So he solves the problem by creating a gimmicky "improvement" to convince us that the same basic item we've always gotten is now a lot better than it used to be, and well worth the new price. You'll see what we mean with these typical ads featuring—

SWITCH BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE

...to the TISSUE BOX that opens Top and Bottom!

At some time in life, every cold sufferer has reached for a tissue to stifle a sneeze—only to come up empty handed because the tissue box was upside down! Well, you don't stay empty handed for long that way, not to mention the soggy damage to clothing and furniture!

Now, thanks to scientific research in the Kleen-Up lab, you can say good-bye forever to soaked upholstery and moist, gummy knees! It's true! Kleen-Up has made the breakthrough of the decade in sneeze stain prevention by introducing the miracle tissue box that opens Top and Bottom! Priced at only $1.29 for the Jumbo Hundred Size, the great new Kleen-Up box costs no more than the old style, 200 tissue pack!

SLYVANIA INTRODUCES THE 83 WATT LIGHT BULB

Once again, in America's hour of peril, SLYVANIA has answered the call! Millions of normally patriotic citizens are forced to squander our vital resources by using powerful 100 watt bulbs because 75 watters simply aren't strong enough! Now, the space age solution is here!

It's the incredible new 83 watt bulb by SLYVANIA—strong enough to take that dismal 75 watt gloom off your home, yet weak enough to save you and our country from 100 watts of wasteful glare! Like all good things, the miraculous new 83 watt SLYVANIA naturally costs a few dimes more than the old fashioned sizes (which are now being discontinued). But let's not put a price on patriotism!

SLOSHERINE

Let's face it—you never know for sure what's going on in your bathroom when somebody else is using it! Maybe other members of the family or guests do pour SLOSHERINE Mouth Splash into a glass before they gargle. On the other hand, they may just guzzle it right out of the bottle, leaving lip and tongue germs and other yecch for you to consume later. But now, SLOSHERINE has come up with a marvelous, new innovation—the one ounce bottle! Made to hold a sealed, individual serving that assures you of unpolluted gargle! Look for SLOSHERINE's handy "ONE-SHOT" container, available now in a six-pack that costs no more than the familiar 16 oz. bottle!

GELDING

REAR-VIEW MIRROR!

Your wife, children, and short parking lot attendants are forever tilting rearview mirrors to suit their own sub-normal height. But you may not notice how the changed angle cuts off your vision until the last split second when you urgently need to see what's behind you. By then, it's often too late!

This motoring hazard has become a thing of the past! Now, the self-adjusting rear view mirror that ends "blind behind" forever is standard equipment on both the 1975 Gelding and the luxurious new Gelding Altoona!

It's all automatic! As you adjust the driver's seat, the mirror mechanism estimates your height and turns itself to the proper angle. And it costs only a few dollars more than you'd expect to pay for a power lawn mower—which does nothing at all to increase your safe driving pleasure.

WITH TARBORO'S NEW SEE-THRU PACK, YOU ALWAYS KNOW WHEN YOU'RE RUNNING LOW!

How many smokes do you think are left in that pack of ordinary cigarettes? Enough to head off a nicotine fit until more can be had? Or will you soon be climbing the walls when you find out too late that the package is empty? With most brands, you never know for sure when you're running out until you have run out!

But you need never experience that moment of agony again, thanks to Tarboro's new see-thru pack. Of course, any life saving innovation is bound to cost a little more money, but it won't cost you the nervous shakes that may await you if you fail to switch to Tarboro today!

Stop Ketchuping Hamburgers The Way Your Grandpa Did!

When the ketchup bottle was invented in 1891, many hailed it as proof that Yankee ingenuity had solved the last major problem plaguing mankind.

But in 1974, ketchup bottles that either clog and leave hamburgers dry, or suddenly cut loose and drench food—just aren't good enough for an America that has put a man on the moon!

Finally, the long search for a better means of ketchuping is over! The aerosol sauce can is here, chock full of hearty Hindsight Ketchup, ready to be sprayed on meat, vegetables, and desserts in the quantity you choose, not the bottle!

Economically priced at only a mere handful of pennies more than old fashioned bottle ketchup, it's still your best food buy!

The Phosphorescent Bandage That Glows In The Dark!

How many times have you awakened in the middle of the night, wondering whether the adhesive bandage you placed over cuts and scratches before bedtime were still in place protecting you? Now, Scrape-Aid's miraculous new phosphorescent Night Glo coating enables every bandage on your body to give off a reassuring glimmer in even the darkest rooms and closets. Offered now at the price of $2.49 for a box of 12, they may seem a trifle more expensive than the bandages we used to make, but we think your sleep is well worth any price!

Bombardier?

Then you're NOT the Bombardier!
If you SAY you are, then you're NOT! You should have said you WEREN'T the Bombardier! Then you WOULD be! Understand . . . ?

this plane?

I'm the Bombardier!
I'm okay!

Of course
I'm sure!

Can I have permission to bail out?

No . . .
of this PICTURE!

Doc, I gotta get out of combat! I want you to ground me!

I can't. In order to be grounded, you have to be crazy!

And anyone who wants to get out of combat obviously isn't crazy!
That's the Army's
"Catch-all-22"!

Bât—don't you think I'm crazy?

Sure—for being in this screwy
picture!

Good!
Then get me out of this screwy
picture!

I can't. In order to get out of a picture, you have to be crazy!

And anyone who wants to get out of a screwy picture
obviously isn't crazy!
That's HOLLYWOOD's
"Catch-all-22"!

Hi, there, pilots!
This is Major Dandy!
You WILL be careful with your planes on today's mission ...
won't you? They cost
$2 million to rent!

After all, it's not easy to find thirty B-25's that can still fly twenty-five years after World War II!

How come his face never moves when he talks?

His real-life WIFE is in this picture!

What's THAT got to do with it?

She's a ventriloquist!

I GOTTA
GET OUT OF HERE!
I'M SICK!
I'M SICK
TO MY STOMACH!

What's the matter,
Shmoessarian? You sick from having to drop bombs on innocent women and children?

No, I'm sick from having to smell that disgusting pipe of yours!

Except for one little thing, I have it all figured out! I swap the parachutes for a warehouse full of Malomars! Then, I swap the Malomars for ten carloads of loose-leaf reinforcements!
Then ... I swap THEM!

What do you swap them
for?

I swap them for parachutes!

What's the point of all that?

That's the one little thing I haven't figured out yet!

That crazy Willy
Wheelerdealer sold
my parachute! Well—
I don't care! I'm STILL gonna jump!

No, Shmoessarian!
You can't jump
without a parachute!
You'll be KILLED!

If it gets me out of this screwy picture,
death can't be
ALL bad!

This must be one of my fantasy scenes!
Tell me, what does my trying to swim to you while you stand there—stark
naked—symbolize?

It symbolizes about $5 million EXTRA at the box office!
This ain't no old-fashioned John Wayne
War Movie, y'know!

Okay—but why am I DROWNING?
Think of how much MORE it would symbolize if I could REACH you!

Hi, Shmoessarian!
I understand that
Col. Catheter has increased the number of missions from 50 to 75!

You've got to help me, Chaplain Tapdance! I don't want to fly any more! I've found a reason for living! There's something
I have to DO before I die!

What's
that?

Take swimming lessons!

Aren't you out of uniform, Shmoessarian?

Everyone walks around like this today!

In the Army?!

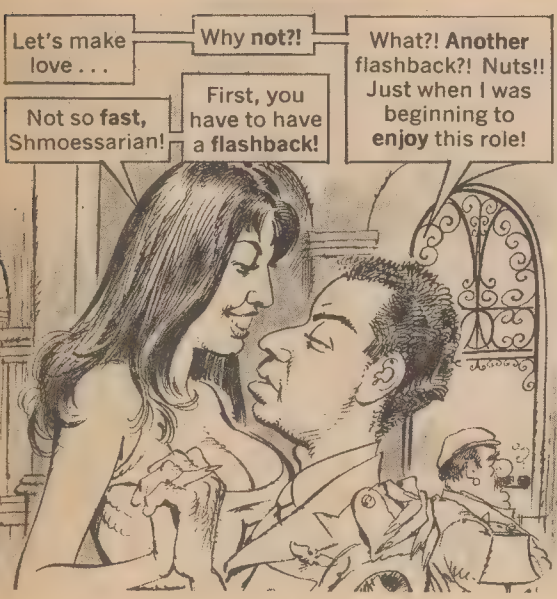

No, in the movies!!

This is ridiculous! I can't give this man a medal!!

Why not?

There's nothing to pin it on!

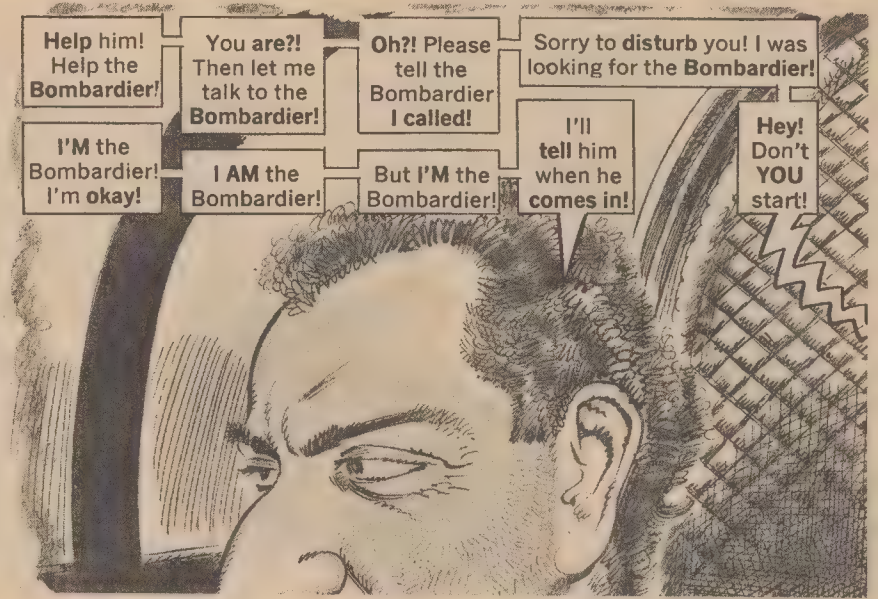

Let's make love ...

Not so fast, Shmoessarian!

Why not?!

First, you have to have a flashback!

What?! Another flashback?! Nuts!! Just when I was beginning to enjoy this role!

Help him! Help the Bombardier!

I'M the Bombardier! I'm okay!

You are?! Then let me talk to the Bombardier!

I AM the Bombardier!

Oh?! Please tell the Bombardier I called!

But I'M the Bombardier!

Sorry to disturb you! I was looking for the Bombardier!

I'll tell him when he comes in!

Hey! Don't YOU start!

Italy weel lose ze war, but eet weel be victorious!

Gee, old Italian man ... you really confuse me!

Why? Because I speek een paradoxes?!

No, because you speak with a French accent!

Come-a, Nutly! Let's-a make-a love now ...

I can't right now! Wait ...

Until-a when??

Until I reach puberty!

Just pretend you're their dying son, Shmoessarian!

The audience won't know! If they don't think it's funny, then they'll think it was supposed to be funny! And if they think it IS funny! they'll never know it wasn't funny!

And this is supposed to be funny!?

You mean...

Right! That's NICHOLS' "Catch-all-22"!

How come a very minor character like you seems to be in almost every scene?

I wrote the screenplay! I made sure that I was!

Boy, that's chutzpah!

Say one more nasty thing, and I'll LET him shoot you!

The script is better than the book! Much better! I love it! LOVE IT!!

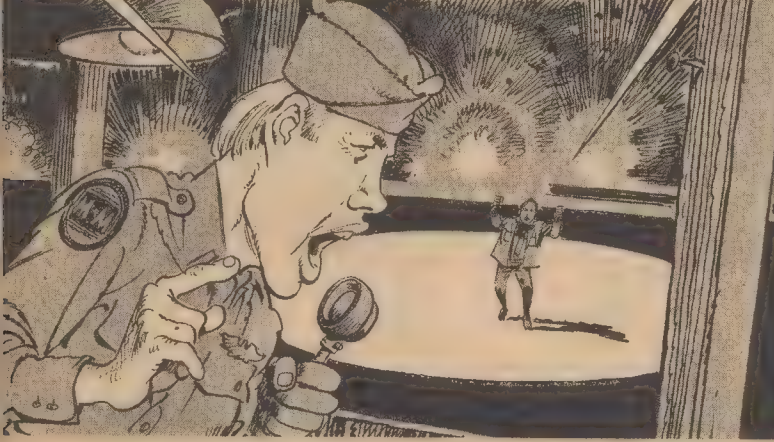

All right, planes! Be careful not to hit our warehouses! Just men and hospitals!

Wily! You're INSANE!!

It's strictly a commercial arrangement, Shmoessarian!

I made a deal to get rid of those parachutes we've been stuck with! I swapped them for some bombs!

Okay, but did you have to arrange to have them DELIVERED?!

Bon giorno, Shmoessarian! Is-a my Nutly come-a soon?

No... they got him!

The Germans?!

No... the Truant Officers!!

Hey!

Hey, this is terrific!

Whoopie! I finally got out of that screwy picture!

What makes you think so?

Don't you see all those disgusting, sordid things going on in these Rome streets? I'm in a FELLINI movie!

See? We finally came back to the beginning of the picture at the end of the picture!

And now we can let the audience hear what we were saying when they couldn't hear what we were saying back then!

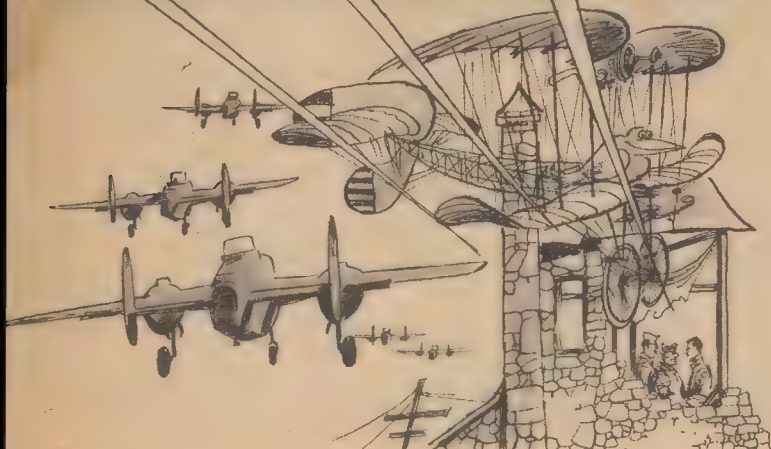

Great! Will it help them to understand the picture any better?

You kidding?! It won't even help YOU to understand the picture any better!

You don't have to fly anymore, Shmoessarian! We're sending you home!

You mean . . . I'm getting OUT?!
Isn't that what he just said?

I think so . . . !
Well, you're NOT!

Somehow, the logic of this entire picture escapes me! And that includes this . . . ARRRGH! . . . knifing scene!

Hey! YOU'RE Nutly's Italian girl . . . dressed up in fatigues! How come YOU'RE killing me?

YOU dunno . . . ?! 'At's-a too bad! I was-a hoping you would-a hexplain it to ME!!

Help him! Help the Bombardier!

Then help HIM!!

Help HIM! Help the Director!

He doesn't understand the movie!

He didn't understand the book, either! NOBODY understood the book!

I'M the Bombardier! I'm okay!

Who? Help WHO?

What seems to be his problem?

Tell him to read the book!

What happens now? I don't DIE, do I?

It's very possible!

But—but in the book, the doctors SAVED me!!

That may be! But in the movies, the doctors killed you! Mainly, WE did this "Insane War Picture" bit FIRST . . . and BETTER!!

ONE DAY IN A BUS DEPOT

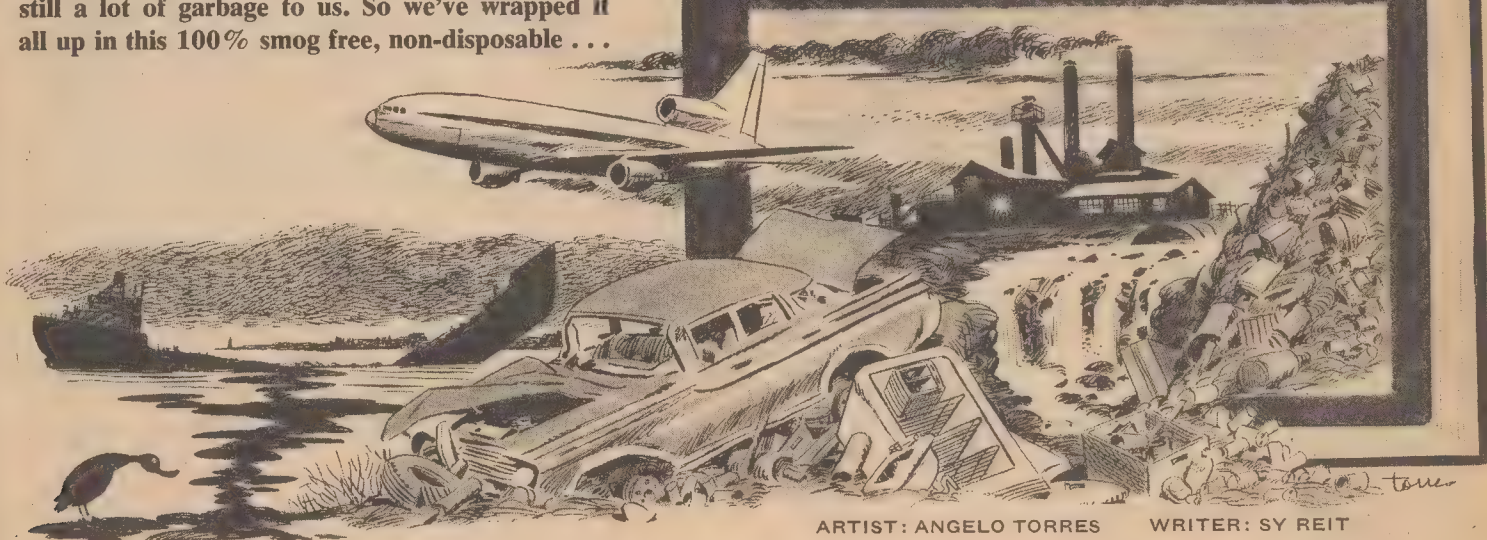

O. MARTIN

In this uncensored world, where anything goes (including the censor), people can read lots of dirty words in books and magazines. Or hear even worse in the movies. And so, in line with this "let-it-all-hang-out" trend, MAD hereby presents the dirtiest word in the English language. Ready?

pollution

Yep, that's it. Not only is it the dirtiest word in the English language, but the deadliest! Ask any tuna fish lover. For months now, the nation's pundits have been permeating the press with their plaintive prattlings about pollution. Well, it's still a lot of garbage to us. So we've wrapped it all up in this 100% smog free, non-disposable . . .

THE MAD "Effluent Society" POLLUTION PRIMER

ARTIST: ANGELO TORRES

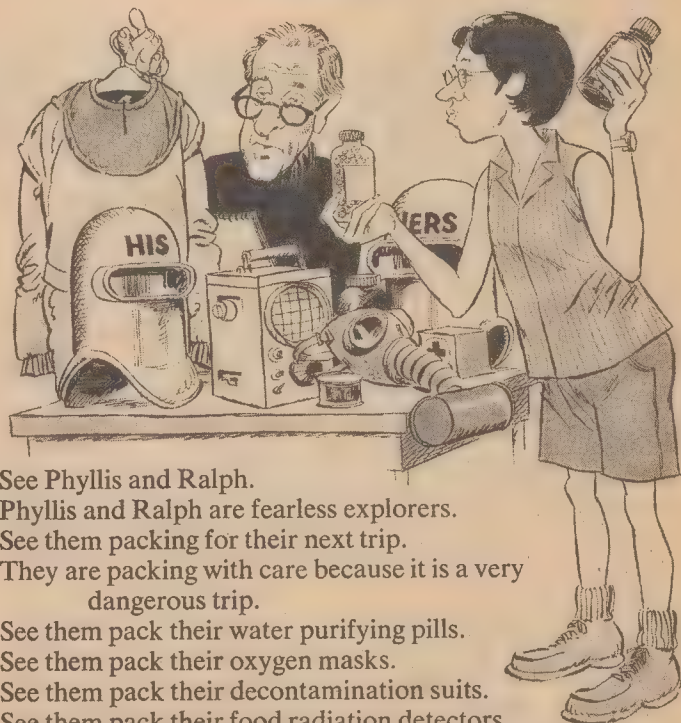

WRITER: SY REIT

Chapter 1.

See wretched Lester.
See how sick and shaky he looks.
Wretched Lester is trying to kick a nasty habit.
He is trying to quit something that is ruining his health.
And giving him terrible coughing spells.
And gradually turning his lungs black.
Lester knows that if he doesn't quit soon, he may die.
But he is having a rough time.
By comparison, giving up high-cholesterol foods was easy.
And giving up drinking was easy.
And giving up smoking was easy.
But how many people can successfully give up breathing?

Chapter 2.

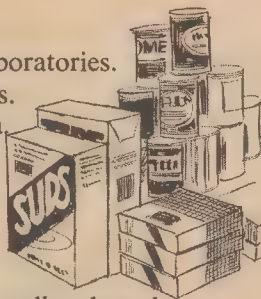

See Phyllis and Ralph.
Phyllis and Ralph are fearless explorers.
See them packing for their next trip.
They are packing with care because it is a very dangerous trip.
See them pack their water purifying pills.
See them pack their oxygen masks.
See them pack their decontamination suits.
See them pack their food radiation detectors.
Pack everything you'll need, Phyllis and Ralph!
Everything, everything, everything.
You can't be too careful when you're planning a vacation in a big, modern American city!

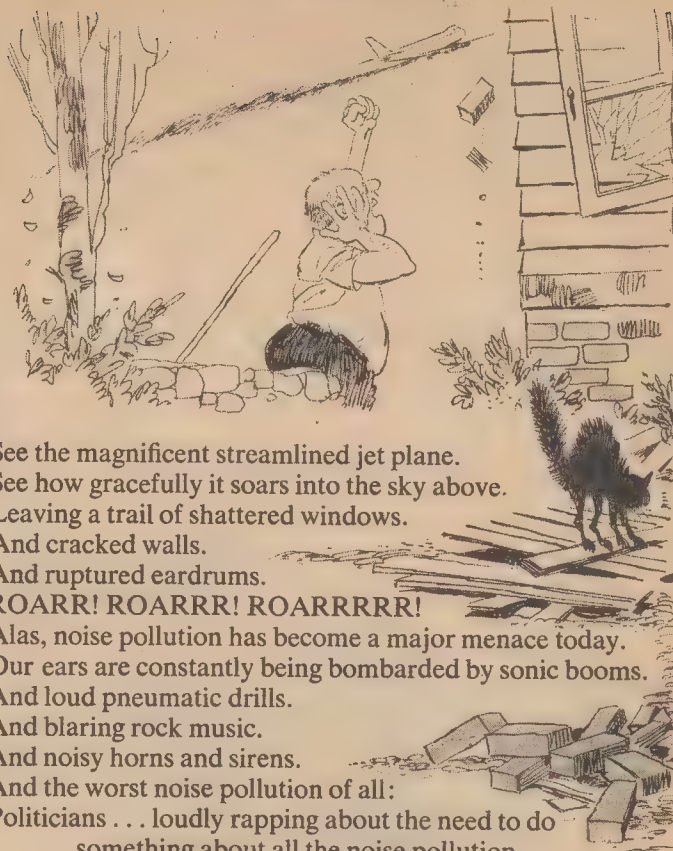

Chapter 3.

See the modern housewife.
See her shopping at her local supermarket.
Is that a shopping list in her hand?
No, it is the latest Analysis Report
From the U.S. Government Testing Laboratories.
She is using it to check out her purchases.
She has to watch for mercury in the tuna
And strontium-90 in the milk.
And plutonium in the butter.
And cyclamates in the soft drinks.
And thorium in the halvah.
And DDT in the gefilte fish.
Yes, to be a modern housewife today, it really takes a lot.
It really takes a lot of courses in Advanced Chemistry.

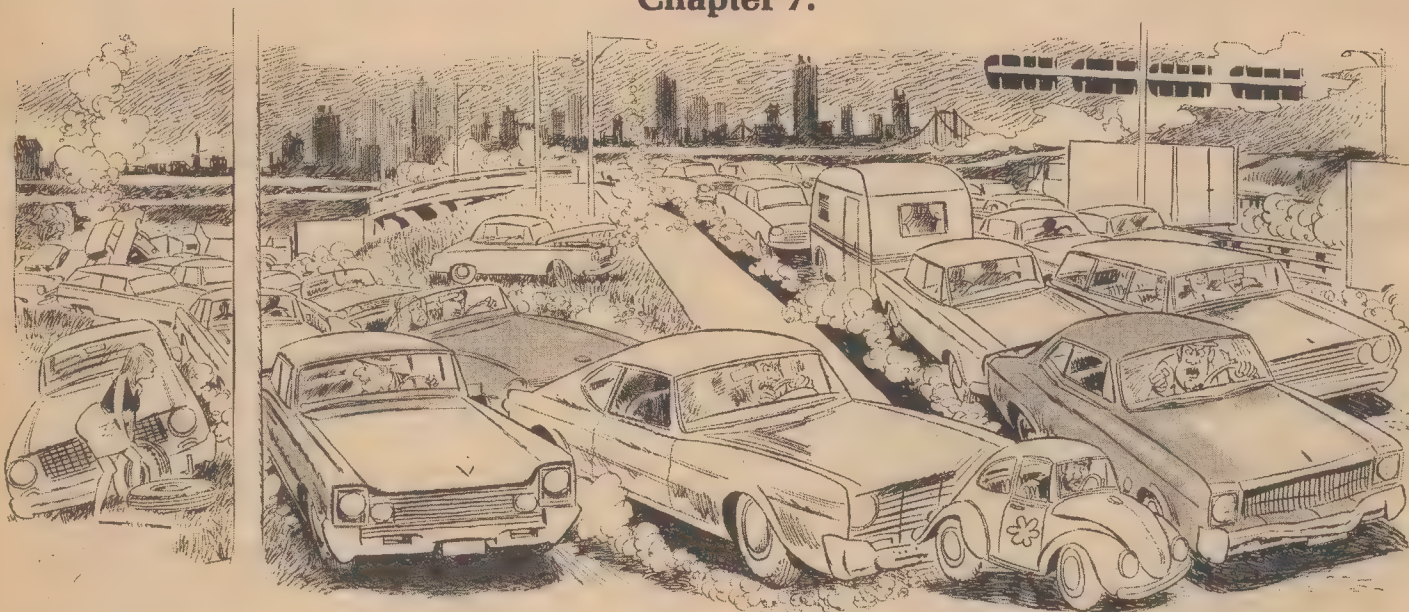

Chapter 4.

See the magnificent streamlined jet plane.
See how gracefully it soars into the sky above.
Leaving a trail of shattered windows.
And cracked walls.
And ruptured eardrums.
ROARR! ROARRR! ROARRRRR!
Alas, noise pollution has become a major menace today.
Our ears are constantly being bombarded by sonic booms.
And loud pneumatic drills.
And blaring rock music.
And noisy horns and sirens.
And the worst noise pollution of all:
Politicians . . . loudly rapping about the need to do something about all the noise pollution.

Chapter 7.

See all the shiny new automobiles.
See them jammed, bumper-to-bumper, on the Freeway.
Hear their horns blaring.
Honk! Honk! Honk!
Hear their drivers cursing,
&¢%$#@! &¢%$#@! &¢%$#@!
See their exhaust pipes emitting.
Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

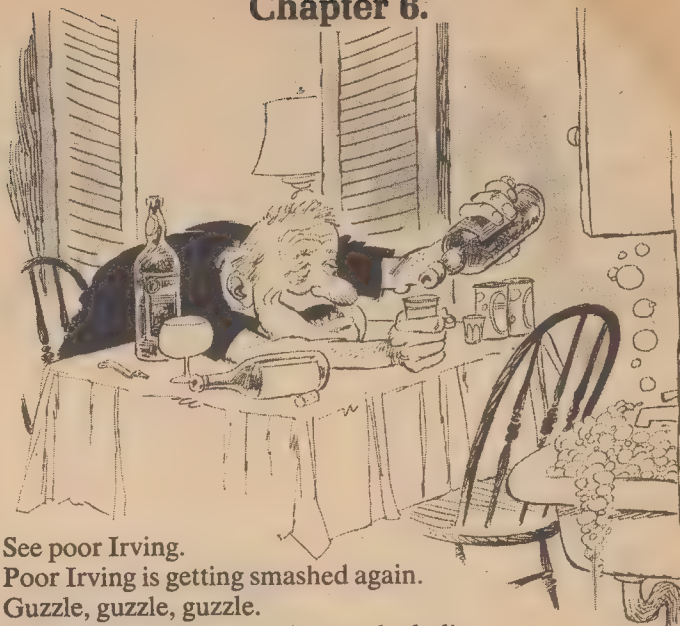

Why are all the drivers in their shiny new automobiles trying to get out of town?
To escape the horrible carbon-monoxide smog of the city caused by so many shiny new automobiles.
Are any of them willing to give up their shiny new little carbon-monoxide makers?
Don't be ridiculous!
Pollution is always the other guy's fault!

Chapter 5.

See the fascinating X-ray.
It is an X-ray of Harold Fleeber's lungs.
Harold is a typical American citizen.
Living in a typical American community.
See how black and polluted his lungs are.
This is one case where black isn't beautiful.
How did Harold's lungs get into such bad shape?
Is he a stoker on a cargo ship?
No!
Does he work deep down in a dark coal mine?
No, no!
Has he been smoking three packs a day for 20 years?
No, no, no!
To tell the truth, Harold hasn't really done much of anything.
How much can an eight-month-old baby do?

Chapter 6.

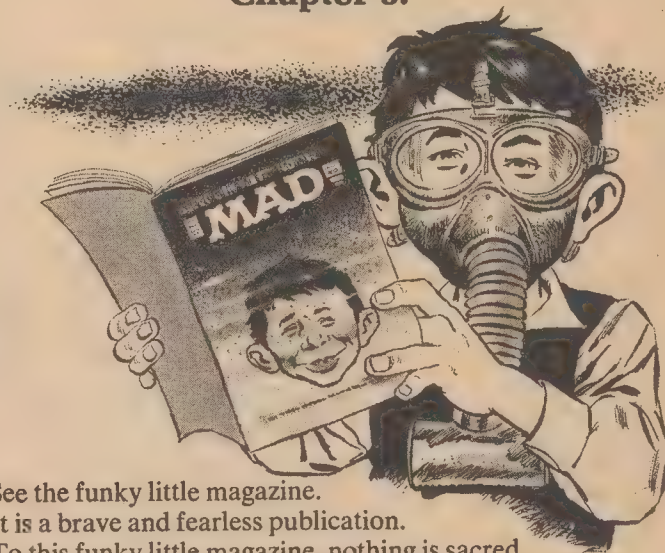

See poor Irving.
Poor Irving is getting smashed again.
Guzzle, guzzle, guzzle.
Poor Irving is fast becoming an alcoholic.
But it isn't really Irving's fault.
When Irving is thirsty, all he wants is a nice glass of water.
But whenever he turns on the tap, what does he get?
A glass full of soap suds.
Yes, poor Irving's water supply is loaded with detergents.
So he is forced to guzzle booze instead.
Barf, barf, barf.
Looks like there's more than one way to get polluted!

Chapter 8.

See the Committee of Distinguished Citizens.
These Distinguished Citizens feel that there is much too much fuss and bother about pollution.
Fuss, fuss, fuss.
Bother, bother, bother.
They feel that people are needlessly panicky.
They feel that everyone should calm down.
They do NOT feel that the problem is as bad or as serious as everyone says it is.
Who are these fine, upstanding, calm Distinguished Citizens?
Harry, there, is an oil company tycoon . . . and Milton owns a paper mill . . . and Robert is a jet fuel manufacturer . . . and Winthrop is an electric utility executive . . . and Herman is the director of a chain of funeral parlors.

Chapter 9.

See the funky little magazine.
It is a brave and fearless publication.
To this funky little magazine, nothing is sacred.
Nothing, nothing, nothing.
It will take on Madison Avenue.
It will take on Hollywood.
It will take on Big Business, and Congress, and the Pentagon.
It will take on the problem of pollution.
And zap those who are responsible.
Speaking of pollution, you are now holding 48 pages
Of the worst kind imaginable
Right in your hot little hands:
Mind pollution!

THE LIGHTER SIDE OF...

BO.

Do you realize that there are five oceans—covering 7/10ths of the Earth's surface! The Atlantic Ocean alone covers 31,530,000 square miles! And the Pacific covers 63,800,000 square miles!

Add to that all of the lakes, rivers and bays ... and it means that 3/4 of the entire world is covered with water!

But just try to find a place to moor your boat!!

Now that we've got a new boat, we need a name for it! How about "The Wayfarer"?

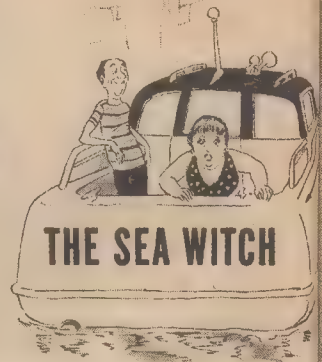

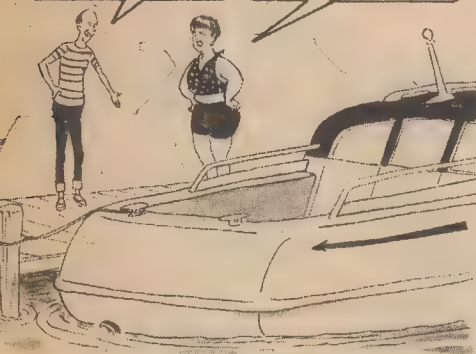

Only a miserable little dumb runt like my husband could come up with such a name!

Well, then how about "The Wanderer"!

What did you do ... take a course in "Stupidity" and get all "A's"!?!

Listen, idiot! Remember me?! Lillian?! Your wife—who puts up with all your incompetence and bungling!? You COULD name the boat after ME!!

SA-A-Y! That's an idea!!

Every Spring, you spend weeks getting your boat ready for the Summer! You work on it like you were a common manual laborer!

That's true! But you must remember that my job is very taxing! I come home every night totally exhausted! THAT's why I have a boat ...!

It's my only relaxation!!

ATING

ARTIST & WRITER: DAVE BERG

Well! Fancy drifting into YOU out here in the middle of nowhere! I see you're still driving that old Stink Pot!!

Don't knock it! I see you're nicely BECALMED in the middle of this nowhere!

Hah! And you dare to call my power boat a "Stink Pot"! Well, I don't have to rely on the fickle whims of the wind whether I go or not!

Okay! Okay! Don't rub it in! I admit defeat! Would you tow me in?

I'd love to . . .

But I'm out of gas!

How you doin'?

WILL YOU SHUT THE HECK UP!? YOU'RE SCARIN' ALL THE FISH AWAY!

I've been trying to attract Jeff Miller's attention for months . . . and I finally completed Step 1! I managed to wangle an invitation to a party aboard his yacht! Now comes Step 2—this Bikini I bought especially for the occasion! If this doesn't do it, nothing will!

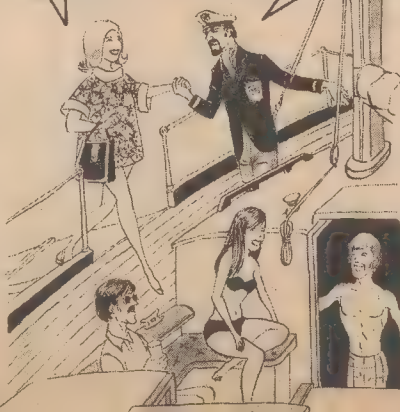

Thanks for inviting me, Mr. Miller!

My pleasure, Miss Fleegle! Welcome aboard!

It's going to be rough today! Can you swim?

No, I can't!

Then you'd better wear this!

So long... and thank you! We had a great time!

It was our pleasure!

Did you HAVE to admire their yacht?! And when they said, "Would you like to come aboard?"—did you HAVE to accept?!

I was just being friendly! What's wrong with that?

I'll TELL you what's wrong! Now we owe them a visit on this ridiculous boat of OURS!!

So long, Mom! I'm leaving now to spend the day on Norman's boat!

Hey, did you take your pill?

PILL?!? Oh, my God!!

What kind of wild orgies do you have on that boat of yours?!

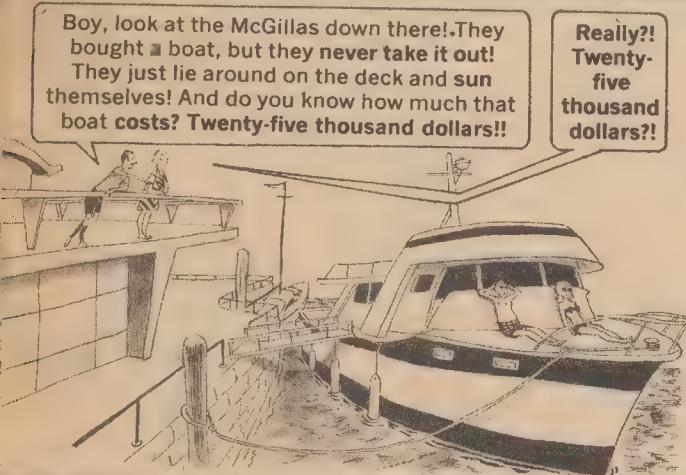

Oh, Mother! Not that kind of pill! You've got a dirty mind! Norman is talking about an anti-sea-sickness pill!

Well, that's a relief!!

But thanks for reminding me!!

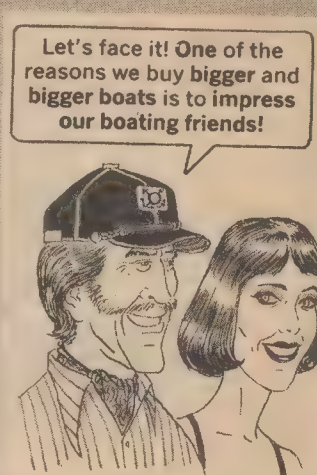

Boy, look at the McGillas down there! They bought a boat, but they never take it out! They just lie around on the deck and sun themselves! And do you know how much that boat costs? Twenty-five thousand dollars!!

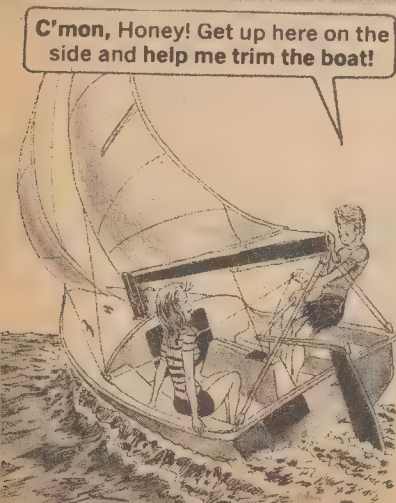

Really?! Twenty-five thousand dollars?!

That's a pretty expensive BEACH CHAIR!!

Let's face it! One of the reasons we buy bigger and bigger boats is to impress our boating friends!

C'mon, Honey! Get up here on the side and help me trim the boat!

Hey! I'm getting wet from the spray! I'm getting down!

You better stay here or we'll capsize!

Capsize, shmapi-size! It's better than getting wet!

Here we go again!

Bail, bail, bail! That's all I ever do on this boat!

Where in heck does all the water COME from?!

Just a minute while I shoot the sun with my sextant...

Okay! Got it!

Now let me check the charts! Hmmm! Ah—there it is!!

I've got it!

You've got what?

I've charted our location and I know exactly where we are... on the button!

...THE NEW ROCHELLE MUNICIPAL YACHT CLUB!!

And one of the gimmicks we use to let people know we've moved up to a bigger boat is to keep the same name but put a number after it!

My first boat, "The Rover," cost me $7000! But compared to the others, it was a dink! So I moved up to "Rover II"! That one cost me $14,000!

The following year, I bought "Rover III" for $21,000! And now... this year—

I know! You bought "Rover IV"!

Except that I decided to give it another name! This year, I decided to call a spade a spade!

$34,789.⁵⁹

Look at those nuts! They're waving at us like crazy!

Oh, that! It's sort of an unwritten law of the sea! When two boats pass, everybody waves at each other!

Well, in that case—

HI, THERE!!

Arnold! They're not stopping!!

YOU STUPID IDIOTS! CAN'T YOU SEE WE'RE SINKING?!!

Oh, wow! Look at Roger Kaputnik, there! When he told me he'd bought a boat, I imagined it was a little nothing runabout! But look at that! Wow!

So there you are! I was worried sick about you! I was just about to call all the hospitals! Where were you all this time?

You KNOW where I was! Taking my Power Squadron course in "Navigation"! Today was Graduation Day!

So . . . how long does it take to graduate from Navigation School?

N-not very long! But traveling was time-consuming!

The school isn't THAT far away!!

I got lost!

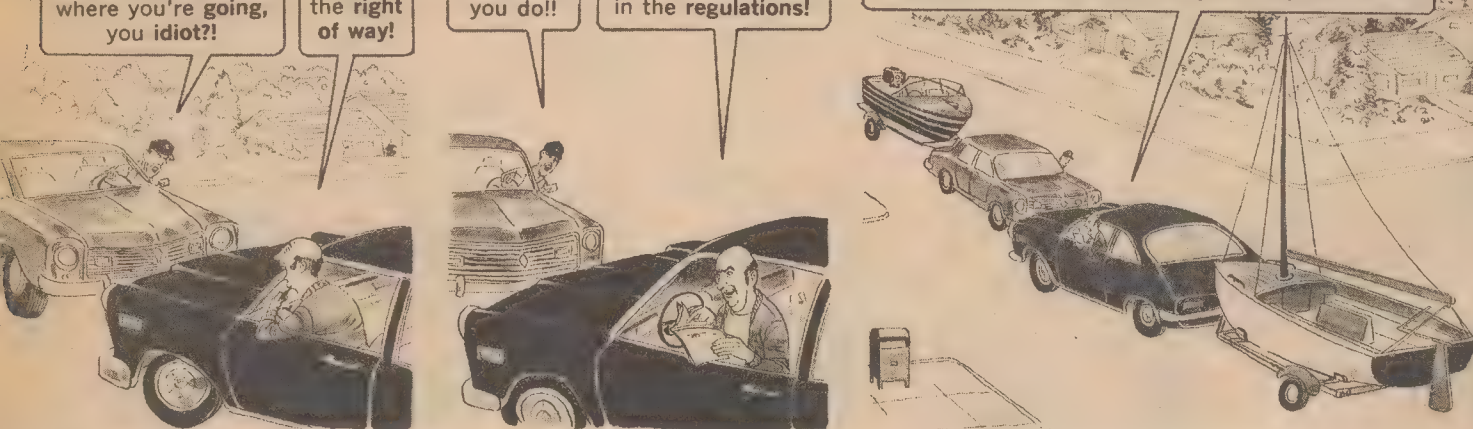

Why don't you watch where you're going, you idiot?!

I have the right of way!

The HELL you do!!

It says so right here in the regulations!

"A sail boat has the right of way over a power boat!"

Rita! Guess what! The Yacht Club finally accepted me!

That's great, Norman, but—

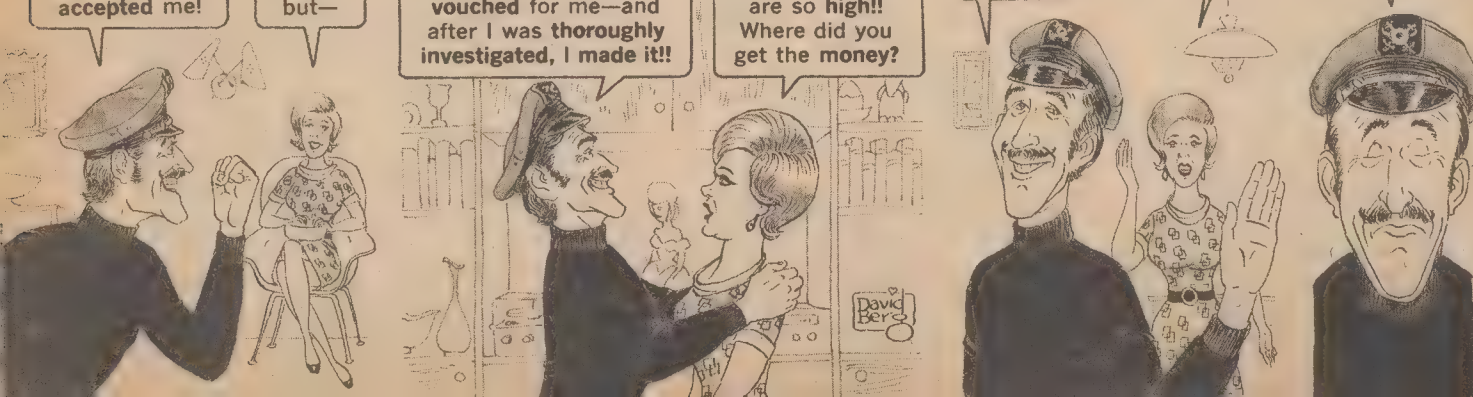

After years of having my name on a waiting list—and after three members vouched for me—and after I was thoroughly investigated, I made it!!

That's great, Norman—but the Membership Fees are so high!! Where did you get the money?

Don't worry! I managed to raise the dough!

HOW!?

I sold our boat!

ORDURE OF THE DAY

ARTIST: PAUL COKER, JR.

WRITER: RONNIE NATHAN

It's true, as we've heard wise men say,
That every dog must have his day,
In cities, though, each day we rue
How many dogs have had their do.

The streets are spattered all through town
With beagle beige and boxer brown;
Though litter we're taught not to strew,
Still every dog's allowed his do.

The tree-lined parks give off a scent
Of, mainly, canine excrement,
Which clings to him who wears the shoe
That steps where dogs have had their do.

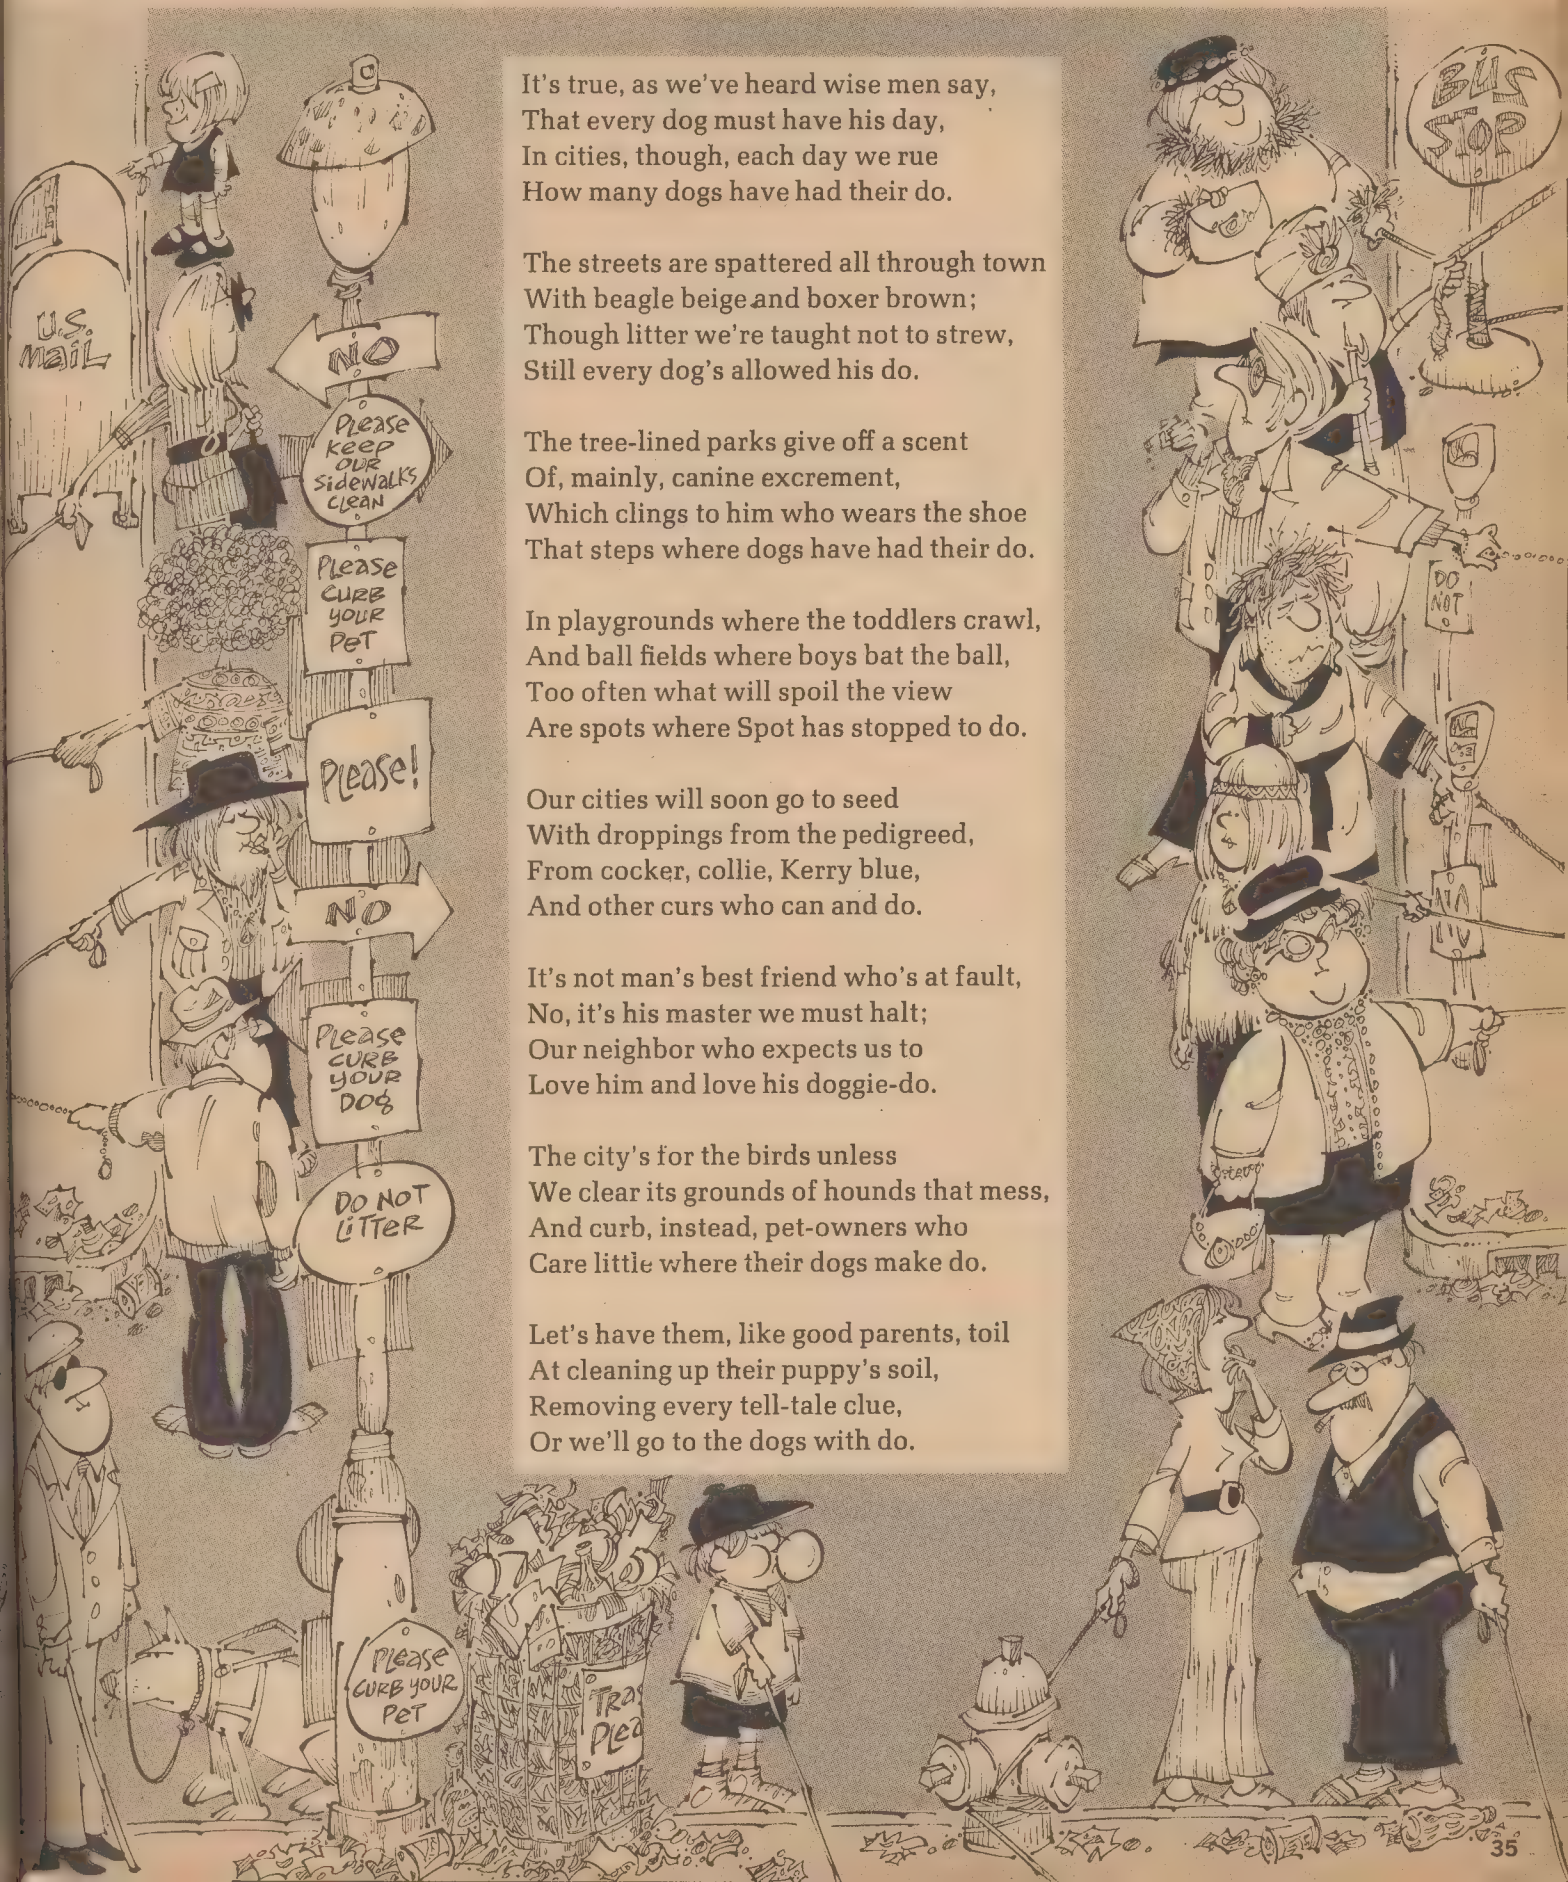

In playgrounds where the toddlers crawl,
And ball fields where boys bat the ball,
Too often what will spoil the view
Are spots where Spot has stopped to do.

Our cities will soon go to seed
With droppings from the pedigreed,
From cocker, collie, Kerry blue,
And other curs who can and do.

It's not man's best friend who's at fault,
No, it's his master we must halt;
Our neighbor who expects us to Love him and love his doggie-do.

The city's for the birds unless
We clear its grounds of hounds that mess,
And curb, instead, pet-owners who Care little where their dogs make do.

Let's have them, like good parents, toil
At cleaning up their puppy's soil,
Removing every tell-tale clue,
Or we'll go to the dogs with do.

WHERE THERE'S SMOKE, THERE'S IRE DEPT.

Here we go with another MAD "Hate Book" ... those little gems calculated to make MAD readers feel better by blowing off steam about their pet hates. Since non-smokers are the most intolerant people in the world when it comes to smokers, all of you smokers

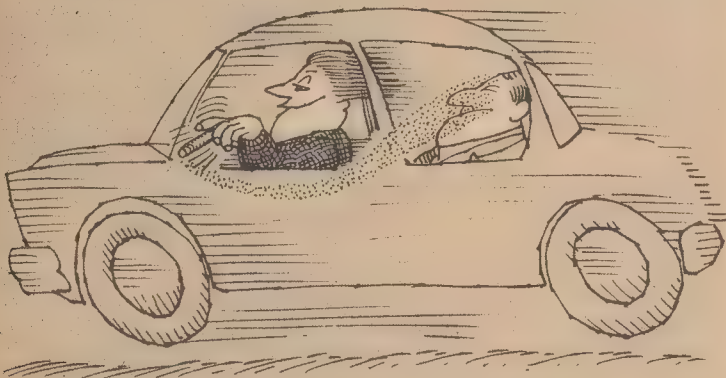

THE MAD NON-SM

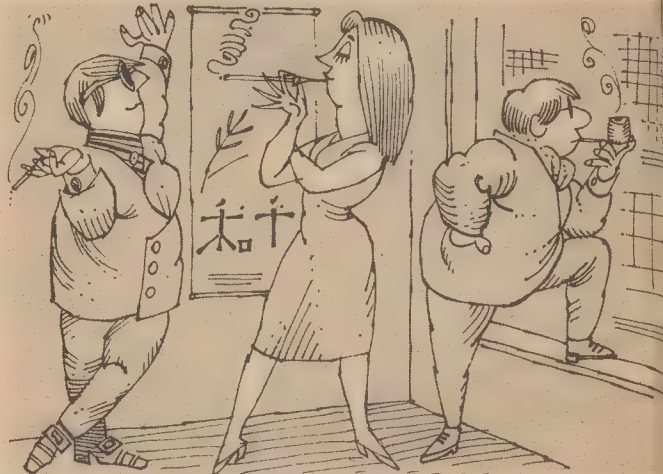

Don't you hate smokers who ...

... never remember where they leave burning cigarettes!

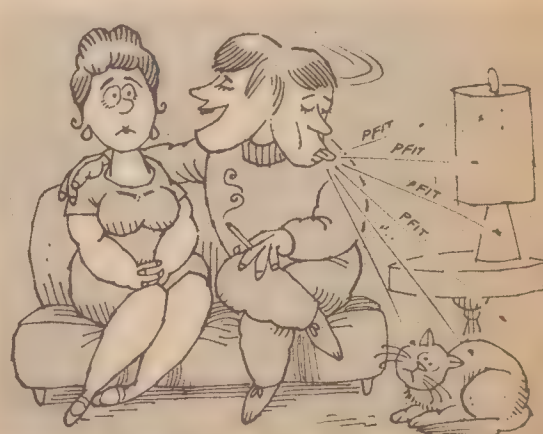

Don't you hate smokers who ...
... wait forever before flicking their ashes!

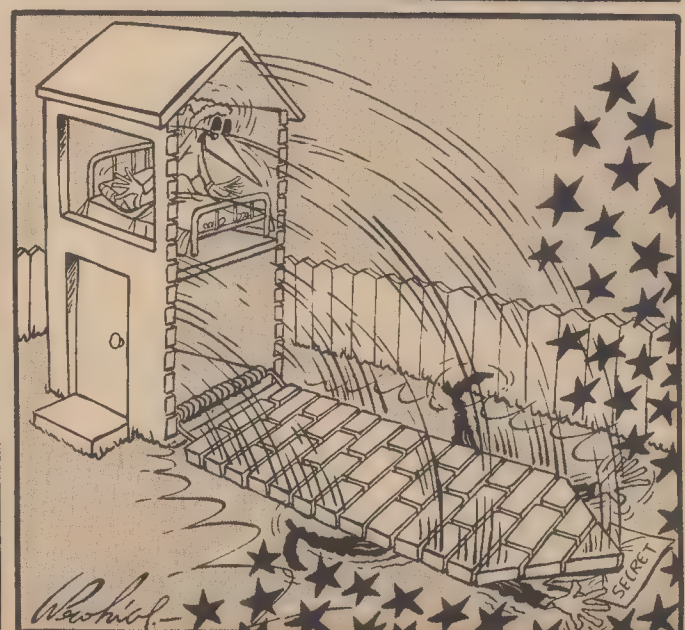

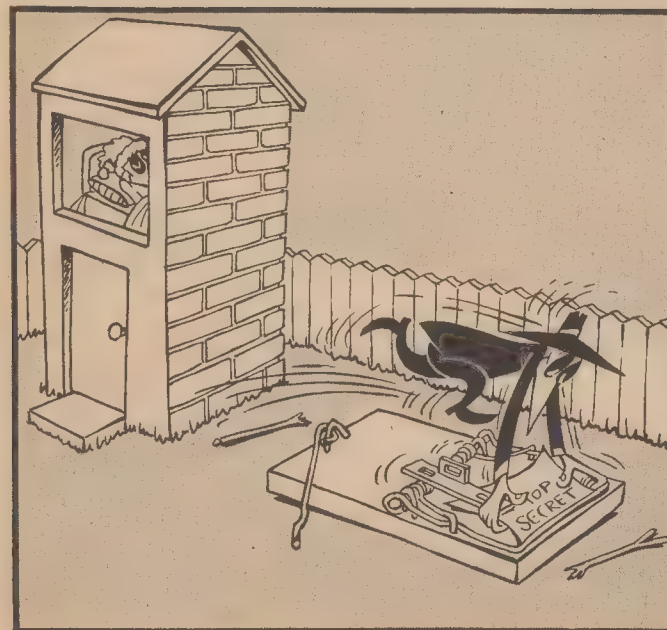

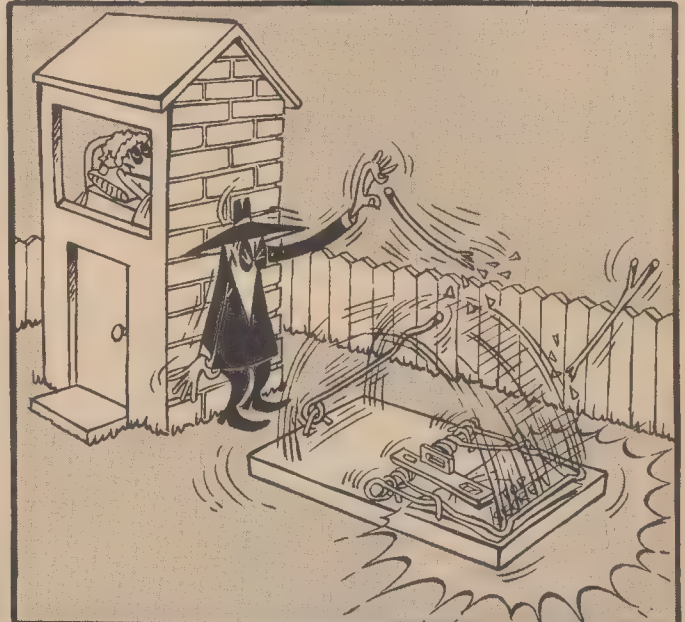

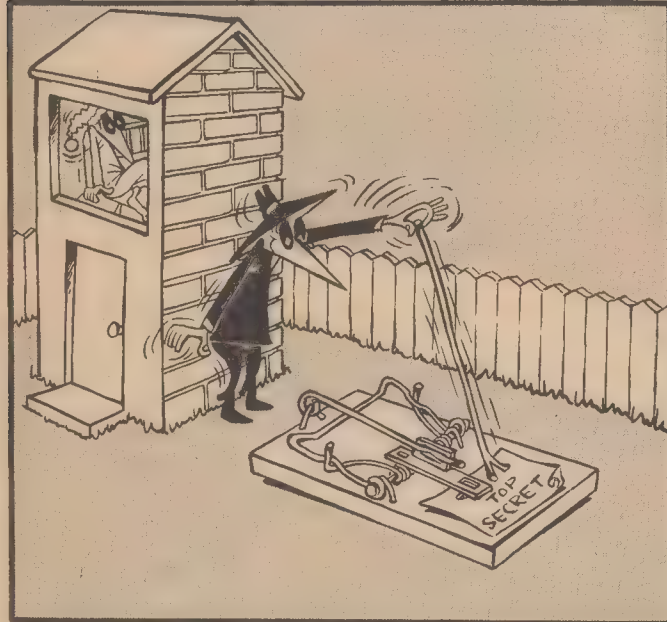

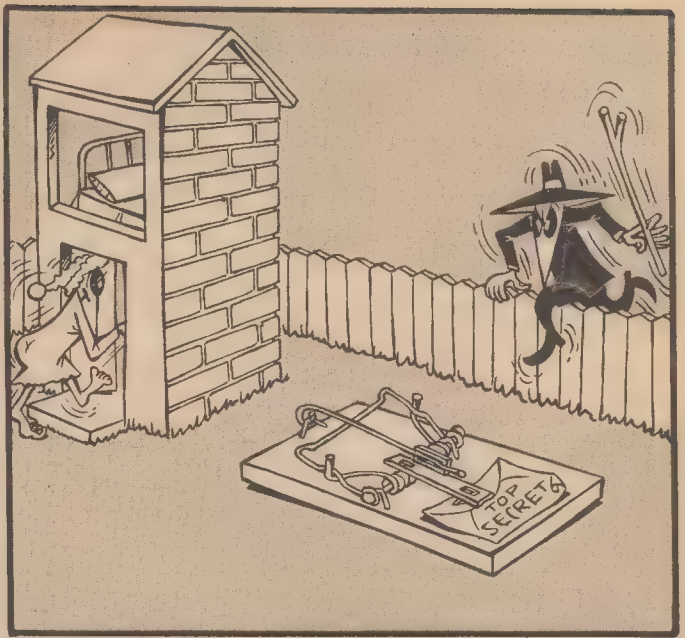

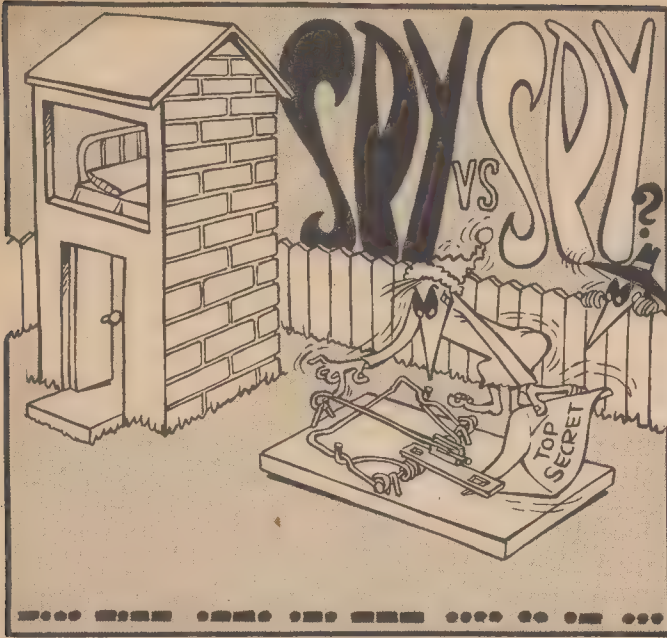

Don't you hate smokers who ...
... always say, "It's good for the rug!"

Don't you hate smokers who ...
... are dentists or doctors and work on you between puffs!

Don't you hate smokers who ...

MAD'S RHYMING GUIDE TO PRO FOOTBALL

ARTIST: JACK DAVIS

WRITER: FRANK JACOBS

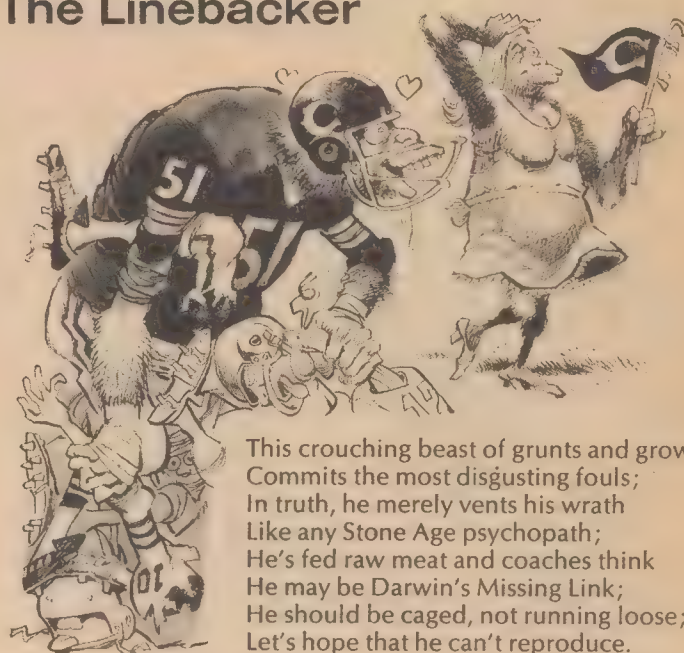

I—The Defensive Team

The Front Four

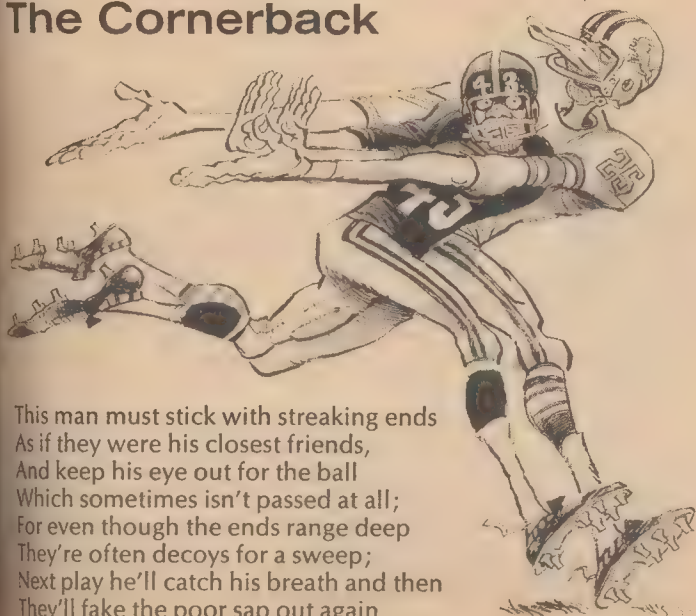

These ends and tackles take great pride
In keeping surgeons occupied;
They've mastered their defensive arts,
Which means destroying vital parts;
With knuckles taped, they punch and maul
The luckless chap who has the ball;
Right now they're sad and sick to death;
The back they've creamed can still draw breath.

The Linebacker

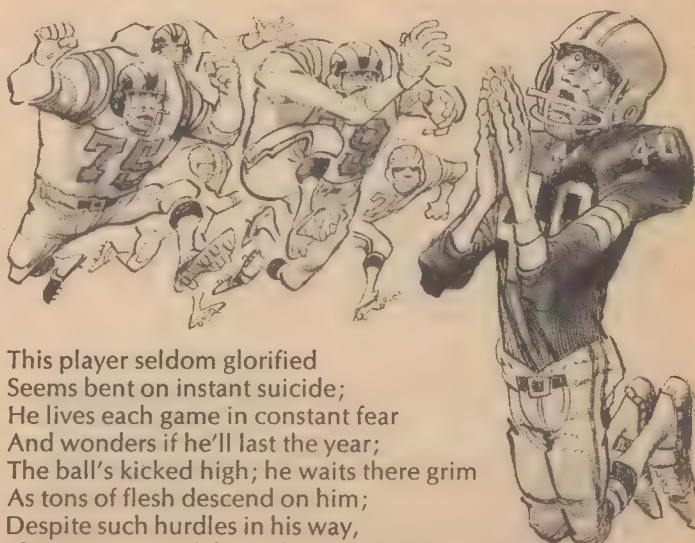

This crouching beast of grunts and growls
Commits the most disgusting fouls;
In truth, he merely vents his wrath
Like any Stone Age psychopath;
He's fed raw meat and coaches think
He may be Darwin's Missing Link;
He should be caged, not running loose;
Let's hope that he can't reproduce.

The Cornerback

This man must stick with streaking ends
As if they were his closest friends,
And keep his eye out for the ball
Which sometimes isn't passed at all;
For even though the ends range deep
They're often decoys for a sweep;
Next play he'll catch his breath and then They'll fake the poor sap out again.

The Kick Return Specialist

This player seldom glorified
Seems bent on instant suicide;
He lives each game in constant fear
And wonders if he'll last the year;
The ball's kicked high; he waits there grim
As tons of flesh descend on him;
Despite such hurdles in his way,
There's one good thing—he's learned to pray.

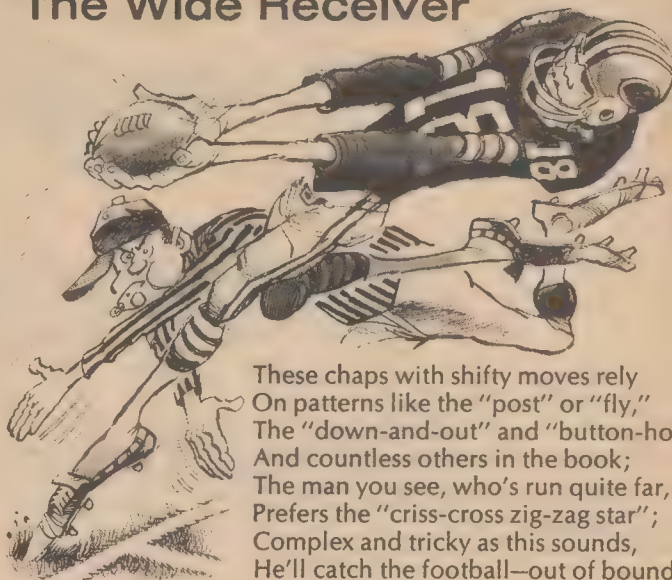

II—The Offensive Team

The Offensive Line

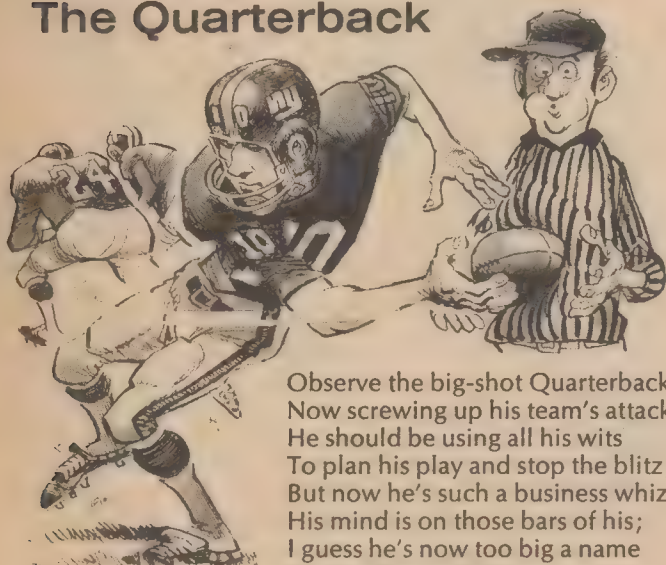

You'll find the fan of football knows
The names of all the high-paid pros,
But naming the Offensive Line
His memory will rarely shine;
It's time we praised this faceless bunch
Who hold the fort and take the crunch;
Their names are er, ulp (choke), ahem ...
Well, one day we'll come up with them.

The Wide Receiver

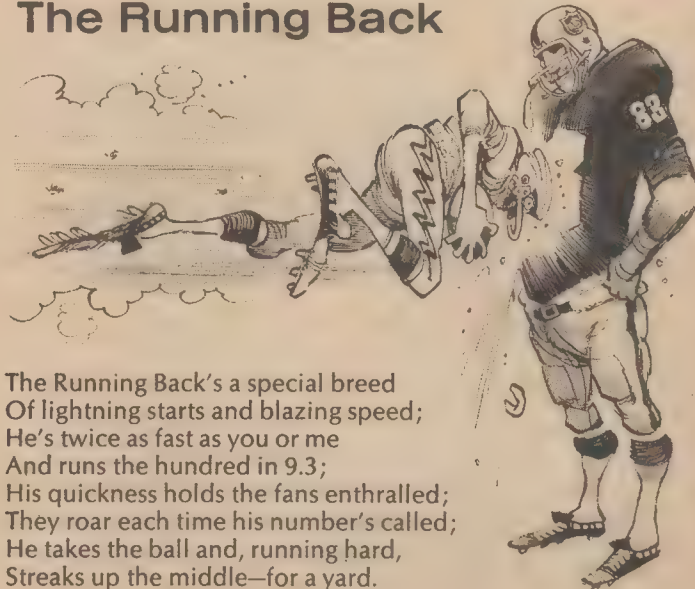

These chaps with shifty moves rely
On patterns like the "post" or "fly,"
The "down-and-out" and "button-hook"
And countless others in the book;
The man you see, who's run quite far,
Prefers the "criss-cross zig-zag star";
Complex and tricky as this sounds,
He'll catch the football—out of bounds.

The Quarterback

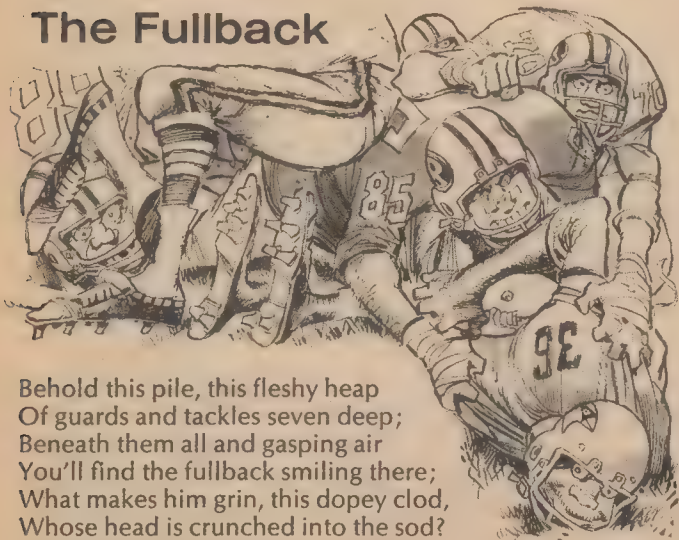

Observe the big-shot Quarterback
Now screwing up his team's attack;
He should be using all his wits
To plan his play and stop the blitz;
But now he's such a business whiz,
His mind is on those bars of his;
I guess he's now too big a name
To care about a silly game.

The Running Back

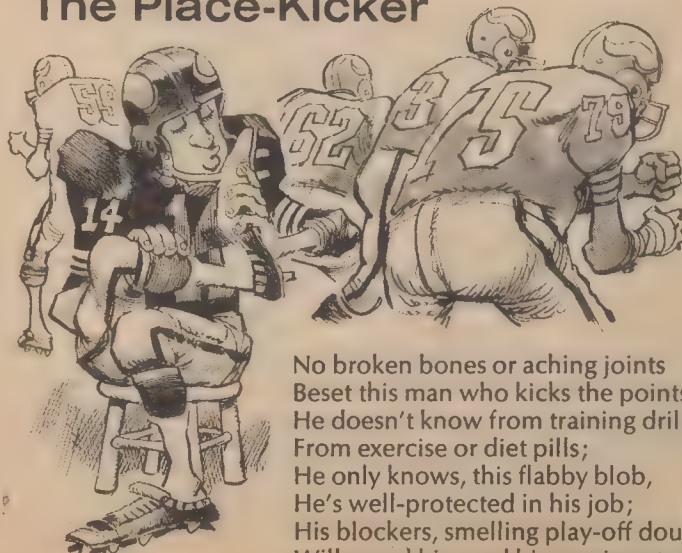

The Running Back's a special breed
Of lightning starts and blazing speed;
He's twice as fast as you or me
And runs the hundred in 9.3;
His quickness holds the fans enthralled;
They roar each time his number's called;
He takes the ball and, running hard,
Streaks up the middle—for a yard.

The Fullback

Behold this pile, this fleshy heap
Of guards and tackles seven deep;
Beneath them all and gasping air
You'll find the fullback smiling there;
What makes him grin, this dozey clod,
Whose head is crunched into the sod?
Because he's just found out that he
Is lying on the referee.

The Place-Kicker

No broken bones or aching joints
Beset this man who kicks the points;
He doesn't know from training drills,
From exercise or diet pills;
He only knows, this flabby blob,
He's well-protected in his job;
His blockers, smelling play-off dough,
Will guard him and his precious toe.

III-The Failures

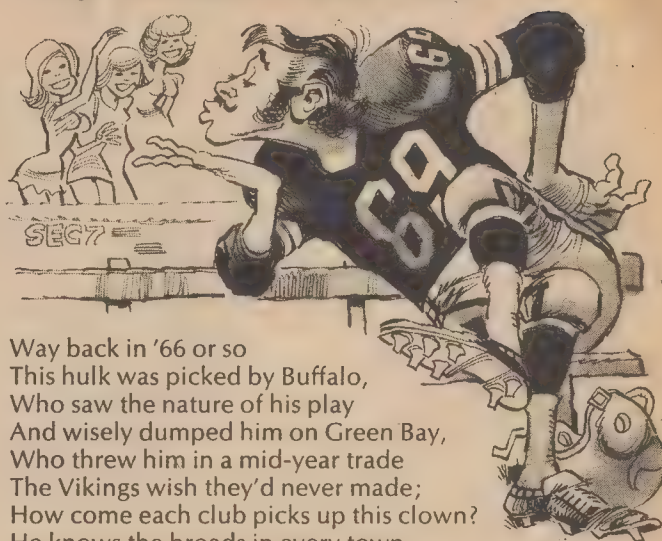

The High-Priced Rookie

This player was an all-time great
At Southeast Arizona State;
The Chargers spied him, if you please,
And signed him for one hundred G's;
He played one game and tried to pass
And met the Oakland line en masse;
This year his shrine they'll dedicate
At Southeast Arizona State.

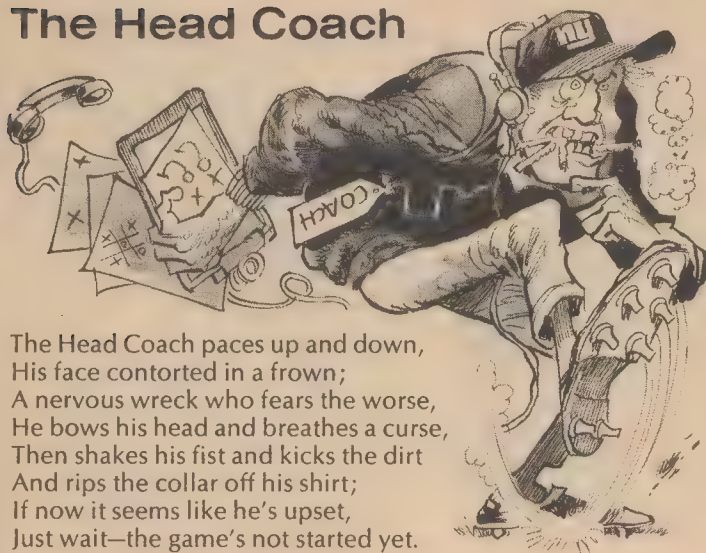

The Bench-Warmer

Way back in '66 or so
This hulk was picked by Buffalo,
Who saw the nature of his play
And wisely dumped him on Green Bay,
Who threw him in a mid-year trade
The Vikings wish they'd never made;
How come each club picks up this clown?
He knows the broads in every town.

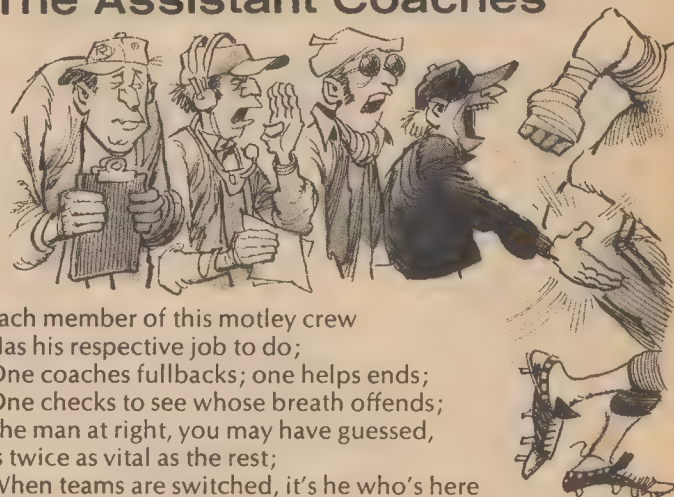

IV-The Coaching Staff

The Head Coach

The Head Coach paces up and down,
His face contorted in a frown;
A nervous wreck who fears the worse,
He bows his head and breathes a curse,
Then shakes his fist and kicks the dirt
And rips the collar off his shirt;
If now it seems like he's upset,
Just wait—the game's not started yet.

The Assistant Coaches

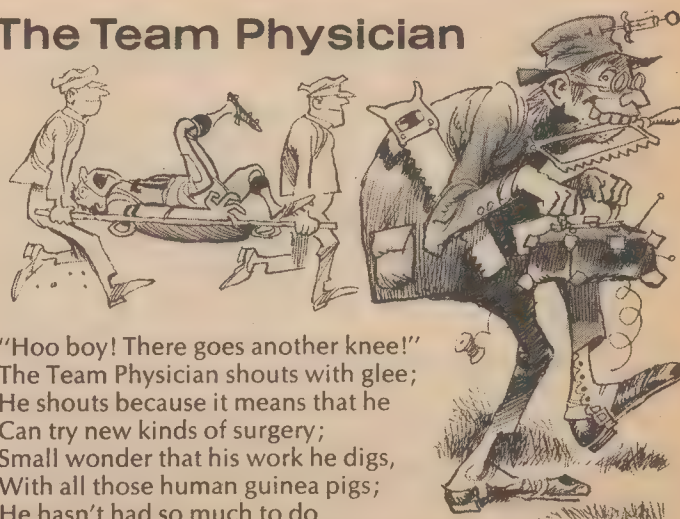

Each member of this motley crew
Has his respective job to do;
One coaches fullbacks; one helps ends;
One checks to see whose breath offends;
The man at right, you may have guessed,
Is twice as vital as the rest;
When teams are switched, it's he who's here
To slap each player on the rear.

The Trainer

Whenever players lack the will
They ask the Trainer for a pill;
He's got a red one that will dull
The aching of a broken skull;
He's got another colored blue
For yellow fever and the flu;
Of course, the players will attest
They like those groovy green ones best.

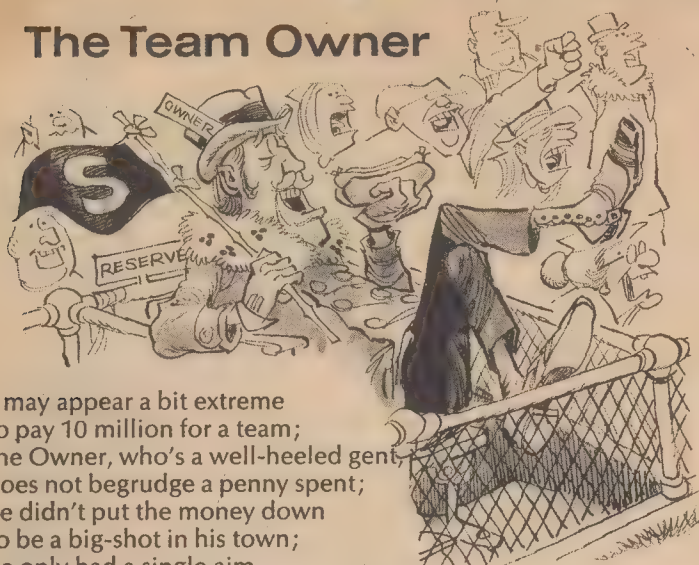

The Team Physician

"Hoo boy! There goes another knee!"
The Team Physician shouts with glee;
He shouts because it means that he
Can try new kinds of surgery;
Small wonder that his work he digs,
With all those human guinea pigs;
He hasn't had so much to do
Since D-Day back in World War II.

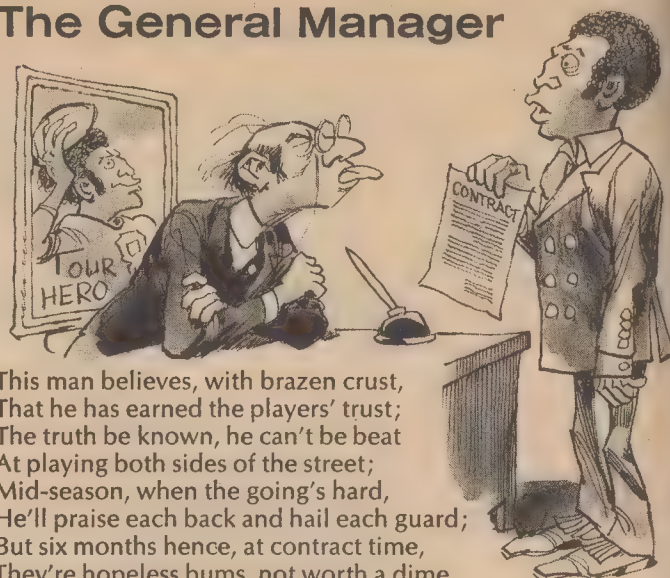

V-The Front Office

The Team Owner

It may appear a bit extreme
To pay 10 million for a team;
The Owner, who's a well-heeled gent,
Does not begrudge a penny spent;
He didn't put the money down
To be a big-shot in his town;
He only had a single aim—
To get a seat to watch the game.

The General Manager

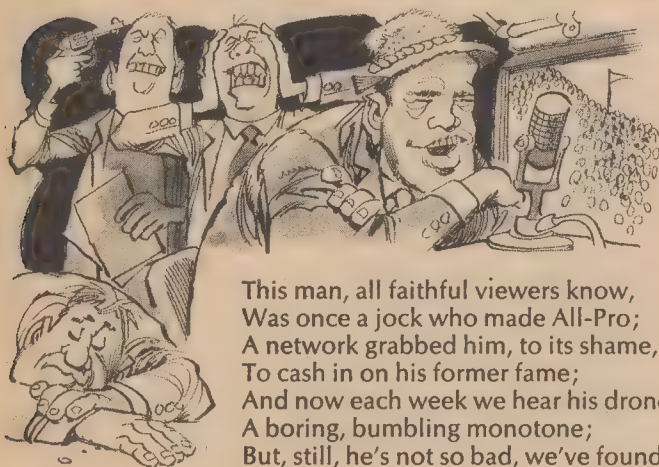

This man believes, with brazen crust,
That he has earned the players' trust;
The truth be known, he can't be beat
At playing both sides of the street;
Mid-season, when the going's hard,
He'll praise each back and hail each guard;
But six months hence, at contract time,
They're hopeless bums, not worth a dime.

VI-The TV Crew

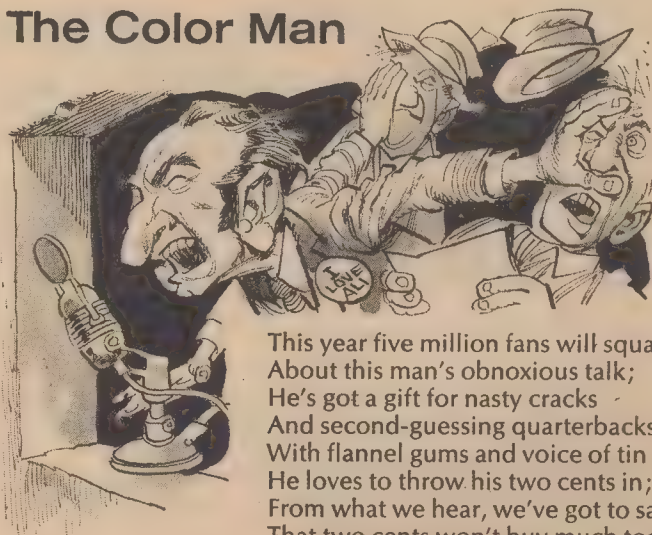

The Play-by-Play Announcer

This man, all faithful viewers know,
Was once a jock who made All-Pro;
A network grabbed him, to its shame,
To cash in on his former fame;
And now each week we hear his drone—
A boring, bumbling monotone;
But, still, he's not so bad, we've found;
That is, if you turn off the sound.

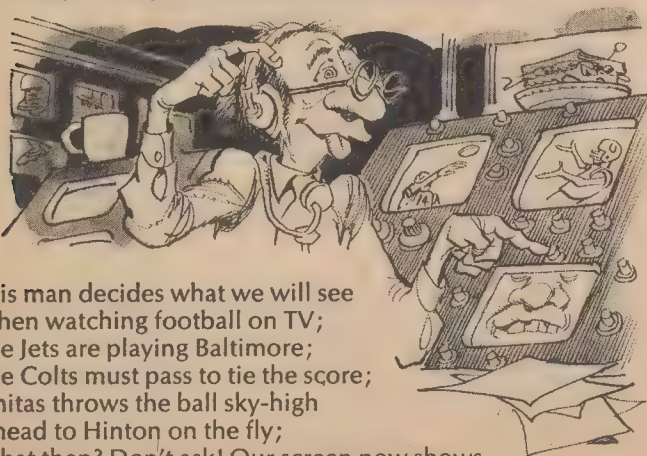

The Color Man

This year five million fans will squawk
About this man's obnoxious talk;
He's got a gift for nasty cracks
And second-guessing quarterbacks;
With flannel gums and voice of tin
He loves to throw his two cents in;
From what we hear, we've got to say
That two cents won't buy much today.

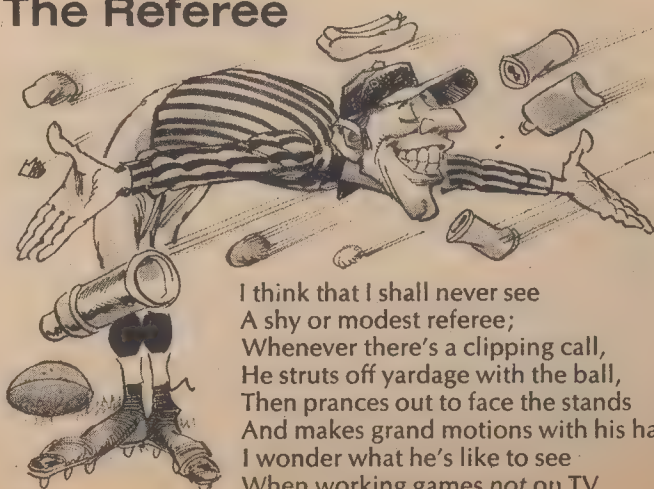

VII-And Last and Least...

The Technical Director

This man decides what we will see
When watching football on TV;
The Jets are playing Baltimore;
The Colts must pass to tie the score;
Unitas throws the ball sky-high
Ahead to Hinton on the fly;
What then? Don't ask! Our screen now shows
A close-up of Weeb Ewbank's nose.

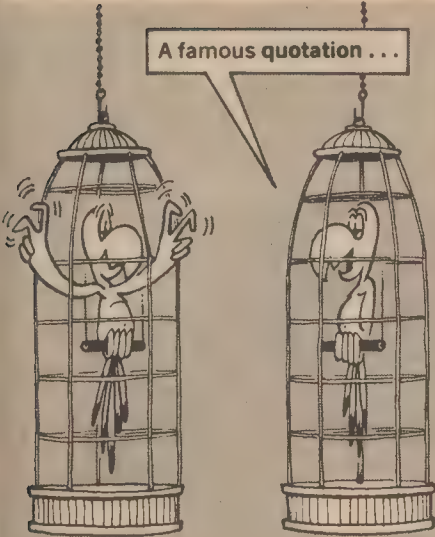

The Referee

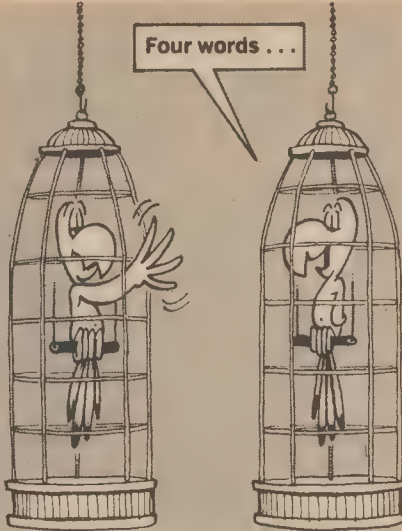

I think that I shall never see
A shy or modest referee;
Whenever there's a clipping call,
He struts off yardage with the ball,
Then prances out to face the stands
And makes grand motions with his hands;
I wonder what he's like to see
When working games not on TV.

YOUR BODY, THE CAR

YOUR body is not unlike a machine in design. Compare it, if you will, to the car. The food you eat is your fuel. (And sometimes it gives you gas—get it? I couldn't resist that funny aside.) Your eyes are the headlights, your eyelashes the windshield wipers, your nose the hood ornament (some bigger than others), your heart the carburetor. I can go on and on—but can your body the car? What are you doing to take care of it? When was the last time you had a check-up? 5,000 miles ago? 10,000 miles ago? If you want to keep your system in top running condition, you must keep all the working parts in tip-top shape. Why not take your body down to your local service station? Do some chin-ups on the grease rack! Some sit-ups on the mechanic's dolly! Some arm-tension exercises by stretching the air hose! You'll also get plenty of badly-needed sprinting exercise when the station manager starts chasing you with a wrench!

If you accept my theory that your body is no different than a car, you will take better care of it. It has helped me tremendously! Just ask my wife—the prettiest little Oldsmobile in town!

"MR. HAND" finals

Unlike the finals for "Mr. Back and Shoulders," staged last month at the Hollywood Bowl, which Lats Dorsi won easily, or the "Golden Calves" finals won by Frank Corelli at the Metropolitan Cow Palace the month before, the "Mr. Hand" elimination finals had no shoo-in contenders. Thus, suspense and excitement reached a fever pitch when the contestants were narrowed down to the last three.

The crowd quieted down for the final pose-off. Dave Drapeless stepped onto the darkened stage, the spotlight focusing only on his impressive, clenched fist. The audience buzzed with obvious approval at the gleaming knuckle structure. Drapeless revealed the pinky and was applauded enthusiastically. Spurred on, he then revealed both his ring and center fingers. The crowd responded with four minutes of cheers and roars! They could sense the hours, the heartache, the sacrifice, and the nail polish that went into the making of a prize fist!

And then the entire hand was bared—naked and unashamed—for all the world to share! The orchestra took the cue and struck up "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You" (despite the California locale) and the audience responded with a standing ovation. John Forbotten, a former trophy winner turned coach, stepped out from the wings and placed a satin robe over his protege's hand as they made their exit.

And now it was time for Artie Zelda to take the spotlight. And take it he did! Hardly giving the audience a chance to catch their breath from the sight of his massive, rippling knuckles, Zelda suddenly exposed every finger in one flip of his limp wrist. The gasps had to be heard to be (continues on page 73)

MODERN MUSCLE'S
Monthly Interview Conducted by Rock River

QUESTION: Can too much sex make you crazy?

ASKED OF: Dr. Errol Virile, B.S., M.S. (Bachelor Swinger and Master of Sex)

Interviewer's note: In every issue of Modern Muscle we probe into some aspect of sex. Why? Well, as anyone in the magazine trade can tell you, the word "sex" appearing on any cover can mean the difference of 10,000 readers! And since we sell only 10,102 copies a month, we got little choice! But perhaps more important is the fact that today's bulging-biceps-ed, tapered-torsoed, gorgeous-looking muscle builder is too often thought of as being "less than a man," usually in words too demeaning or disgusting to print here! Just because that someone labors feverishly to improve it by lifting weights or shaving the ecchy hair from his body, or oiling his body with skin lotions and balms so that his body shimmers gloriously in the sun as he struts about the beach, that's no reason for people to laugh and point and say nasty things about his "masculinity"! I'm a body builder and proud of it! And I'll scratch the eyes out of the first person who says anything nasty about me!

With this in mind, let us begin our candid interview with this month's guest, Dr. Errol Virile, Head Researcher at the Jasters and Monson Sex institute.

MM: Dr. Virile, it is obvious from your background and experience that you have been involved in many, many sexual encounters, and certainly a lot more than the typical average person. Does this in any way affect your stability or mental state?

VIRILE: Good morning.

MM: Your biography states that you were a top scorer at college, yet there are no sports listed. Does this imply something?

VIRILE: Fine, thank you.

MM: Speaking specifically, Doctor, what, in your professional opinion is the "healthy" frequency for normal sexual activity?

VIRILE: I take it with milk, one teaspoon of sugar, thanks.

MM: Doctor, in one of your lectures at the Institute, you were quoted as (Cont. on page 92)

"I hold to the belief that there is nothing abnormal about a man and a cow living together, provided they both have their respective parents full consent!"

"Freud once said, just before he died, or maybe it was after, I forget . . . anyway, he said, "'Oh, to be Jung again!' And who dares to say otherwise, right?"

"In the final analysis, a man is nothing more or less than what he believes himself to be, without introspection, without guilt, and without Cheese Danish!"

MALE BAG

In the last issue you published 45 different poses of me. I sent you 100. What was wrong with the other 55? Give the public a break, will ya! Also, you mentioned I was "Mr. All-American Man", "Mr. North American Hercules", "Mr. Far East Atlas", and "Mr. Shaker Heights Adonis". But you forgot to mention I was also "Miss Nebraska".

Verily truly,

Sonny Capistrano
Muscle Bitch, California

A few months ago I read your ad about how the skinny guy's girl friend would say, "Hey, skinny!" to him and guys would kick sand in his face. Then he sent away for your barbell set and he became strong and not skinny anymore. Well, there was this guy in my neighborhood who always made fun of me and called me, "Hey, skinny!" so I sent for your barbells and I really fixed him. One day I challenged him to weight-lifting contest. I put 120 lbs. on the bar. He went first and lifted it easily over his head. Then I tried but I couldn't get it past my waist. So I dropped it on his foot! And now he's stopped making fun of me because everyone calls him, "Hey, gimpy!"

Thanks,

Skinny Atlas
Syracuse, N.Y.

I always thought the health food and exercise bit was just so much bull. But then one day I decided to give it a try, and boy, what a difference it made! I feel like a new man! I look like a new man! My friends don't recognize me! My father doesn't know me! My bank won't cash my checks anymore! Last night my wife had me arrested as an intruder! I've been fired from my job as an imposter! Just one question—how can I get back the old me?

A new and lonely man,

Englewood, N.J.

In your magazine you always show adonis-type people. Quite frankly, I am ugly and very badly proportioned. I have extremely short legs, long arms, and I'm grossly overweight. I've tried to work out in the gym, but people laugh at me, so I've stopped going. Should I be content and just accept myself as I am? I enclose a recent photograph of myself so you can judge.

Please help,

Ill Chick
Chic. Ill.

Dear Ill, Do not give up! There is no reason why a physical fitness program won't help you! And do not let the fact that people laugh at you affect your purpose. Their laughter is a reflection on themselves, not you! Hope we've been of some help to your tortured ego. Just one favor from you now, okay? Could you please send me a few more copies of your photo? They make fantastic gag postcards.

Thanks,

Joe Weedgerm,
Editor

A MAD PEEK BEHIND THE SCENES AT A RESORT HOTEL

ARTIST: BOB CLARKE

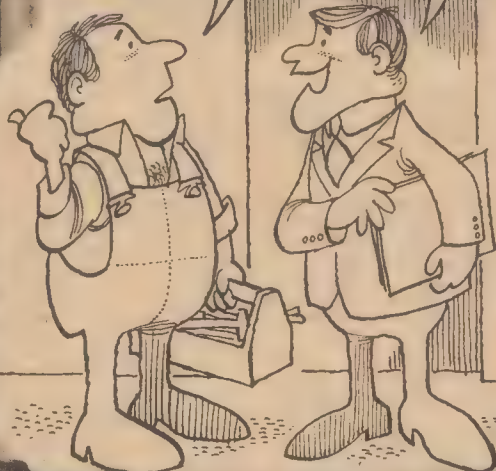

WRITER: LARRY SIEGEL

Ahhh, young love! Isn't that nice?!
It's just like our brochure says . . .
"Euphoria Hotel—The Romantic Spot—
The Ideal Place To Meet A Husband!"

Are you kidding?
If I meet MY husband here,
I'm DEAD!!

The bed in room 389 is in terrible shape! The two left legs are shorter than the two right legs, and you can't lie in it without tipping from side to side! We got trouble!

Wrong! We got a VIBRATING BED! Put a quarter coin box on it and we'll clean up!

Okay, everybody got it straight! Barney carries the guy's bag into the lobby! Steve carries it to the elevator! Gus carries it down the hall! And I carry it into the room!

No—don't stretch a good thing too far! Four tips on one bag is enough!

And then, I carry it to the bed!

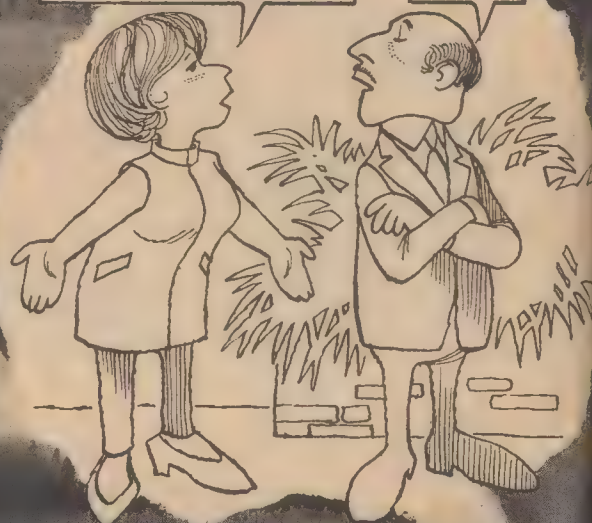

The guests are complaining about our pool! It's small, it's only two feet deep, and the water is like lukewarm soup! Shall we admit it's a wading pool and refund their money for misrepresentation!

Of course not! Tell 'em we're a "Spa"—that that's our therapeutic pool—and charge 'em extra to go in!

You advertise this hotel as the finest resort on the coast, with all rooms facing the ocean! Well, MY room doesn't face the ocean!!

We didn't say WHICH ocean!

Why must all tennis players wear white?

Because it's a tennis tradition ... because white is a neat clean color and tennis is a neat clean game ... and mainly, because how ELSE could I make a killing in my tennis supply shop selling shirts, shorts, skirts and sneakers?!?

Our Championship Tennis Court is in terrible shape! I counted about 18 holes in it!

Okay, take down the net! We now have a Championship Golf Course!

Ooops! Sorry to bust in on you folks like this! I'll come back at a better time!

She ought to be ashamed of herself! She knows the only time we bust in on guests is when they're either naked—or in the bathroom!

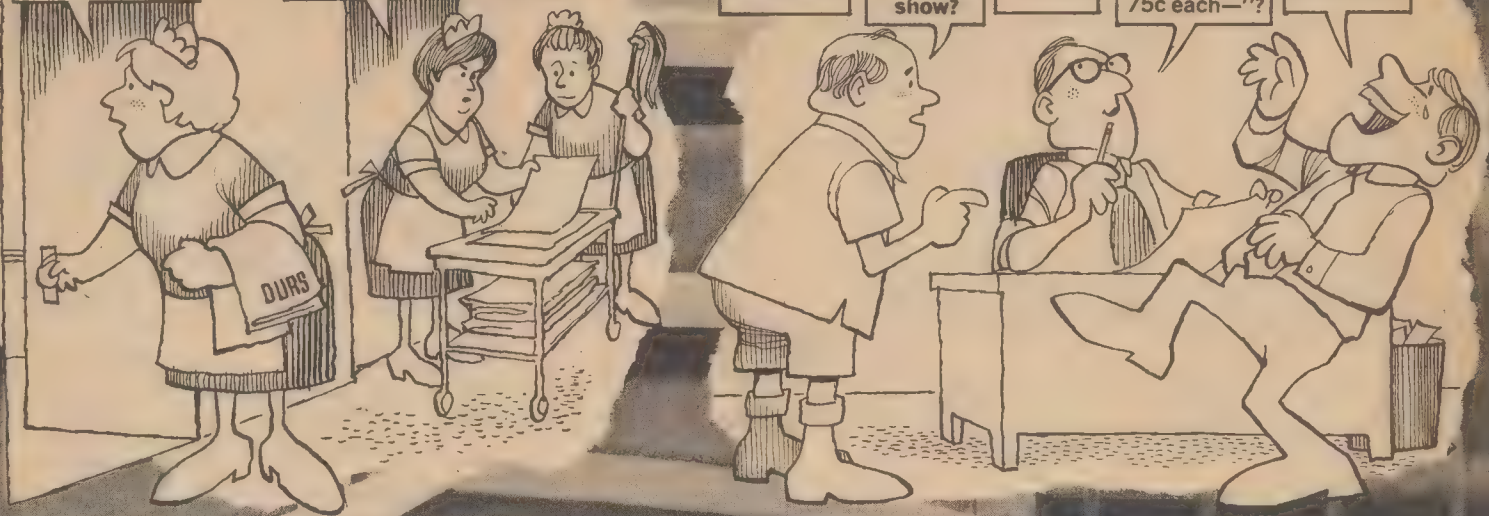

Ha-ha-ha! Hee-hee! Hoo-hah! Oh, stop! You're killing me!

What's he writing? A sketch for the show?

No, a laundry price list for the hotel!

How about "Socks—$1 a pair—hankies—75c each—"?

Please! Stop! I can't stand it anymore!

The dining room staff just locked all the guests in, submitted a list of grievances to the chef, and set fire to the pantry!

If I told 'em once, I told 'em a thousand times—Don't hire college kids as waiters!

The air conditioning broke down in Room 227! It's sweltering in there! Shall I call a repair man?

No, I have a better idea! Throw a couple of bricks in a corner, and we'll advertise a free sauna bath!

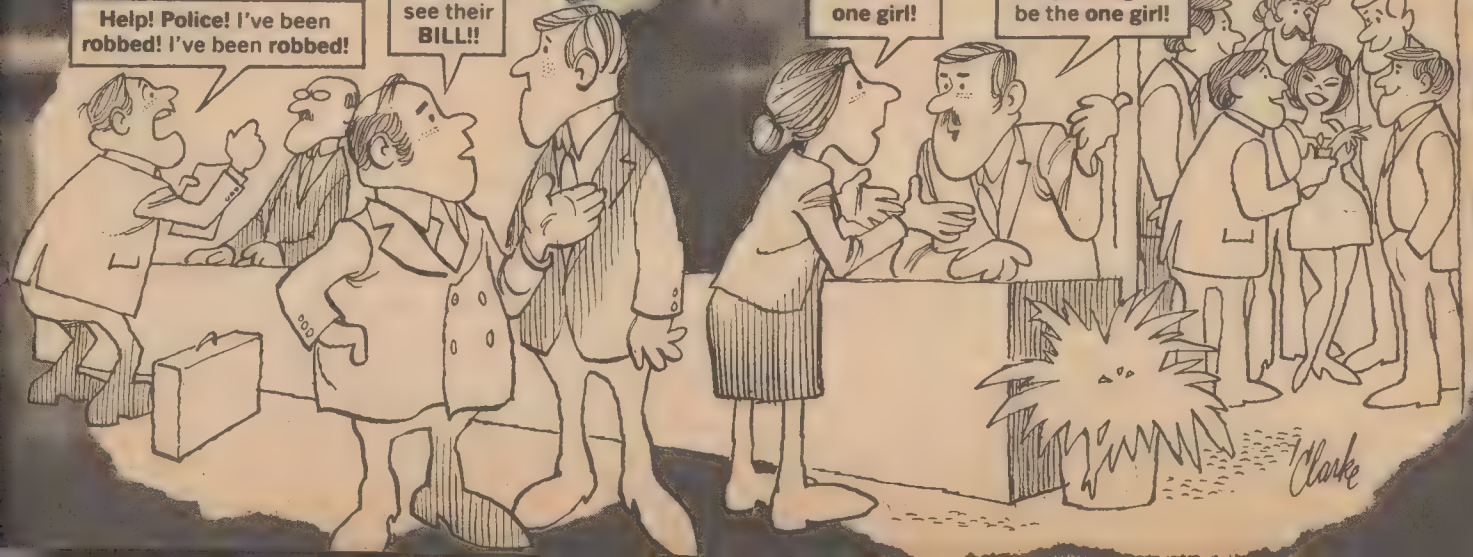

We pride ourselves in our efficient Hotel Security Force! There hasn't been a robbery here in years!

Except when our guests check out and see their BILL!!

Help! Police! I've been robbed! I've been robbed!

On the phone you told me there were five men to one girl!

That's right! And those are the five men! Too bad you're not lucky enough to be the one girl!

Today everybody seems to be a militant or a protester or some kind of non-conformist. Student radicals, hard-hat construction workers, women's lib fanatics, homosexuals—you name it; they're making themselves heard. MAD, of course, is glad to see all this. Not only does it give these people something to do, it provides us with an excuse to present these

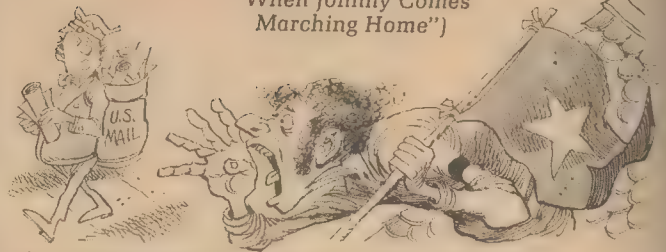

MARCHING SONGS FOR CRUSADERS, MILITANTS AND ASSORTED, SUNDRY NON- CONFORMISTS

ARTIST: JACK DAVIS WRITER: FRANK JACOBS

THE COLLEGE STUDENTS' HOMECOMING MARCH

(Sung to the tune of
"When Johnny Comes Marching Home")

When Johnny comes home from school this year—

Hoo-hah! Hoo-hah!

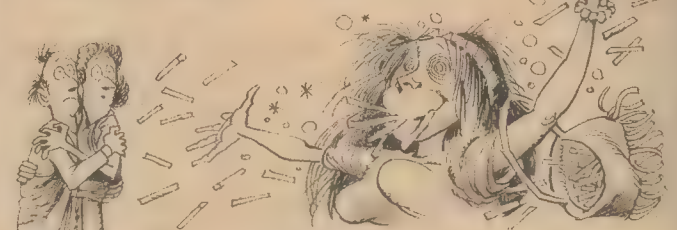

The neighbors will know that he is here—

Hoo-hah! Hoo-hah!

The Vietcong flag from the roof he'll fly

While screaming "Pig!" at each passer-by;

How the block will stare when Johnny comes home from school!

When Susie comes home from school this year—

Hoo-hah! Hoo-hah!

She'll swing like a ten-foot chandelier—

Hoo-hah! Hoo-hah!

She'll offer grass to her ma and pa;

She'll take the pill and she'll wear no bra;

How the town will buzz when Susie comes home from school!

When Freddie comes home from school this year—

Hoo-hah! Hoo-hah!

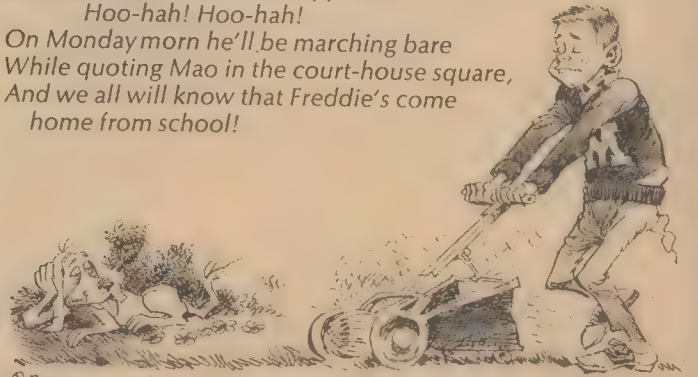

His parents will want to disappear—

Hoo-hah! Hoo-hah!

On Monday morn he'll be marching bare

While quoting Mao in the court-house square,

And we all will know that Freddie's come home from school!

When Marvin comes home from school this year—

Hoo-hah! Hoo-hah!

We won't have a single thing to fear—

Hoo-hah! Hoo-hah!

He'll wear a crew-cut and mow the grass;

He'll go to church and act middle-class;

What an awful bore when Marvin comes home from school!

THE HYMN OF THE HARD HATS

(Sung to the tune of
"Off We Go, Into The Wild Blue Yonder!")

Off we go—
In the peace group yonder,
Looking for ... yippies to chase!
There's a creep—
Tearing our flag asunder!
At him, boys! Step on his face!
C—c—c—crunch!

Raise the flag—
Over this land of freedom!
We'll preserve ... Liberty's way
Those filthy Reds
We'll break their heads
Yeah
Nothing can stop the Hard Hats today!

THE LONG-HAIR DRAFTEES' PEP SONG

(Sung to the tune of
"Over Hill, Over Dale")

At Fort Dix
At Fort Knox,
We will hide our bushy locks
As we draftees are keeping our hair;
With a new Short-hair wig,
They won't toss us in the brig
As we draftees are keeping our hair;
For it's hi-hi-hoo
When a week-end pass comes through—
Let out your hair, Man—don't be square!
We will wear it down
While we all turn on in town—
And we draftees are keeping our hair!

THE REVOLUTIONARY LEADERS'

ROUSER

(Sung to the tune of
"Over There")

Get your share!
Get your share!
Write for "Look;"
Sell a book;
Get your share!
If your words are smutty,
And you look nutty,
You soon will be a millionaire!

Make 'em stare!
Show your flair!
Be absurd;
Say "that word"
On the air!
That's the style, man;
Get crude and vile, man;
You'll be (bleeping) rich and you'll really
get your share!

THE HAWKS' PEP SONG

(Sung to the tune of "Bless 'em All")

Bomb Hanoi!
Bomb Hanoi!
When their troops are too tough to destroy—
A plane-load of bombs from a B-52
Will blast out the rats and the war will be through;
Should you find that the Doves you annoy,
Don't let their complaints mar your joy—
To hell with the soreheads—
Use nu-cle-ar warheads
And blow up the world with Hanoi!

THE POT-SMOKERS' FIGHT SONG

(Sung to the tune of "Stouthearted Men")

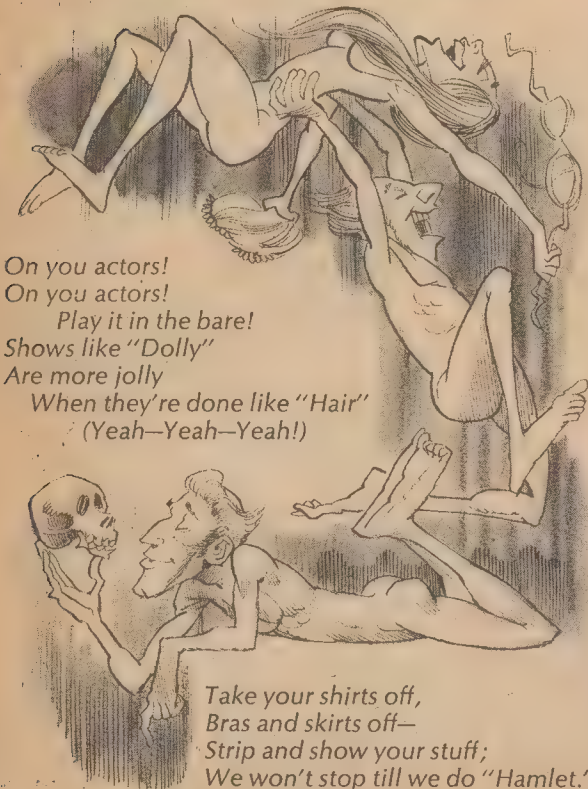

Give me some men
Who are pot-smoking men
Who will puff on the stuff they adore;
Making their points
While they're rolling their joints—
On the street, in the park, on the floor—
Oh-h-h-h—

Dizzy and crazy
With heads gettin' hazy,
We're high—through the sky we will soar;
When—
We're all so stoned and bombed that we can hardly see—Then—
Pot-smoking men
Can all flip out on LSD!

THE NUDITY-ON-BROADWAY ANTHEM

(Sung to the tune of "On Wisconsin!")

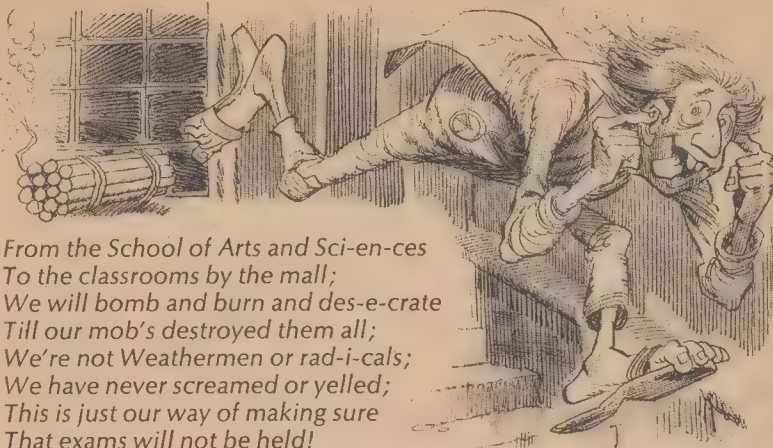

On you actors!
On you actors!
Play it in the bare!
Shows like "Dolly"
Are more jolly
When they're done like "Hair"
(Yeah—Yeah—Yeah!)

Take your shirts off,
Bras and skirts off—
Strip and show your stuff;
We won't stop till we do "Hamlet."
In... The... buff!

THE COLLEGE RIOTER'S CHANT

(Sung to the tune of "From the Halls of Montezuma")

From the School of Arts and Sci-en-ces
To the classrooms by the mall;
We will bomb and burn and des-e-crate
Till our mob's destroyed them all;
We're not Weathermen or rad-i-cals;
We have never screamed or yelled;
This is just our way of making sure
That exams will not be held!

THE WOMEN'S LIB ANTHEM

(Sung to the tune of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic")

Our eyes have seen the glory of the mighty Women's Lib,
When we're free from changing diapers for a baby in a crib;
When we're not enslaved by husbands to a bottle or a bib;
Our cause is marching on!

(Chorus)

Glory, Glory Hallelujah!
Fight so men will not subdue ya!
If they bitch, then let 'em sue ya!
Our cause is marching on!

We will crash the clubs for men where women aren't allowed to tread;
We'll go to work as stevedores or lumberjacks instead;
We will fight the Cosa Nostra till the Mob is made co-ed;
Our cause is marching on!

(Repeat Chorus)

We will shout for Hai Karate when our body sweats and smells;
We will wear the jockey shorts that ev-ry haberdasher sells;
We will work as the attendants in the men's rooms in hotels;
Our cause is marching on!

(Repeat Chorus)

We will force the Green Bay Packers to allow us on the squad;
We'll elect a woman President, and if you think that's odd...
When we die and go to heaven, we'll elect a woman GOD;
Our cause is marching on!

(Repeat Chorus)

Thanksgiving Day—the day for giving thanks—started out as a good idea! But somewhere along the way things started to change, a little at first, and then a little more, and then—well, it's hard to give thanks when the day begins with the idiot box blaring out the annual event called ...

MESSY'S THANKSGIVING DAY PARADE

ARTIST: ANGELO TORRES

WRITERS: DICK DE BARTOLO & KEDZIE NORTH

This year the parade promises to be even more breathtaking, colossal, dazzling, fabulous and spectacular than ever!

I see you're still using those same 5 tired adjectives, aren't you, Betty?

Yes, but this year, I put them in alphabetical order, Lorne!

It's a beautiful, sunny morning in New York City, isn't it, Betty?

Are you kidding? I'm freezing my—oh, yes, Lorne! The temperature is a crisp 6 below zero ... the humidity is 94% ... the wind is from the East, blowing at 40 miles per hour—this is a recording—the temperature is ...

What's in store for all our TV viewers this morning, Betty?

You won't believe it, Lorne! 14 continuous hours of elaborate floats, marching bands, and gigantic balloons!

Same old breathtaking, colossal, dazzling, fabulous, spectacular plate of beans, huh?

Yup! And of course that jolly old man with the beard will be here at the end of the parade . . .

You mean Fidel Castro?

No, silly! Santa Claus!

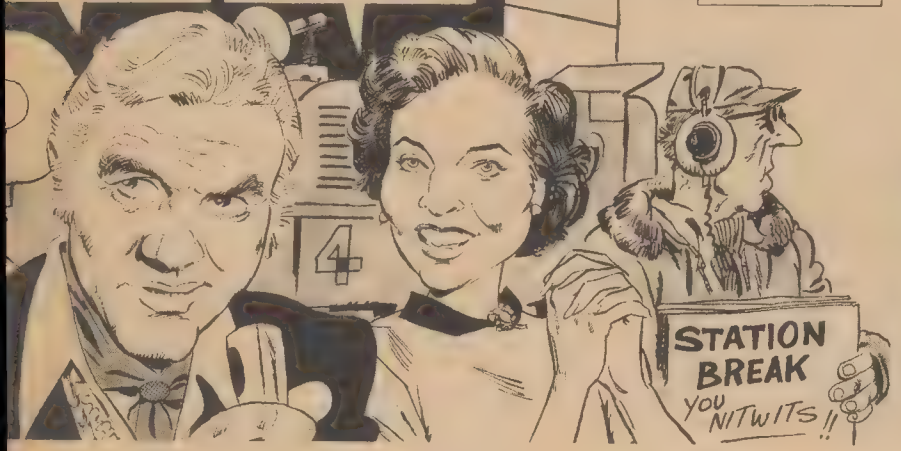

Santa Claus? On Thanksgiving? Isn't that like introducing the Easter Bunny on Lincoln's Birthday?

Yes, but without Santa, this whole, obviously commercial farce would appear obviously commercial!

Well, so long as the parade is chock full of surprises, however inappropriate!

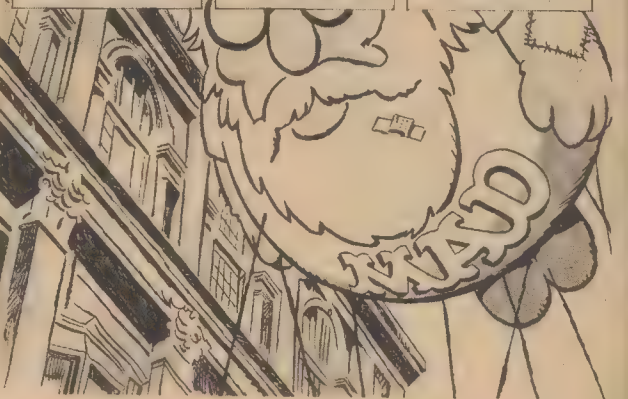

Right! And the biggest surprise will be if you and I shut up for more than five seconds!

Anyway, from what I've seen so far, this will be a new, unique, exciting, original re-run of last year's parade!

How many people do you think braved the chill, and came to watch the parade in person, Lorne?

Well, I counted 12, but I think some of them were part of MESSY's public relations staff!

Oh look! Here comes the very first marching band! Do you want to describe it Lorne, or should I?

Lorne? Lorne! Wake up!

Huh? What year is this? Where's Hoss and Little Joe?

Here they come—the Drum and Bagel Corps from Shennawocky Jr. High School in Shennawocky, Tennessee! The group is 147 strong— and 14 weak! Lorne?

This is really an amazing group, Bet! These youngsters spent the last 8 months selling toasted marshmallows door-to-door in order to raise money for this trip to New York! Last night they stayed at a luxurious hotel!

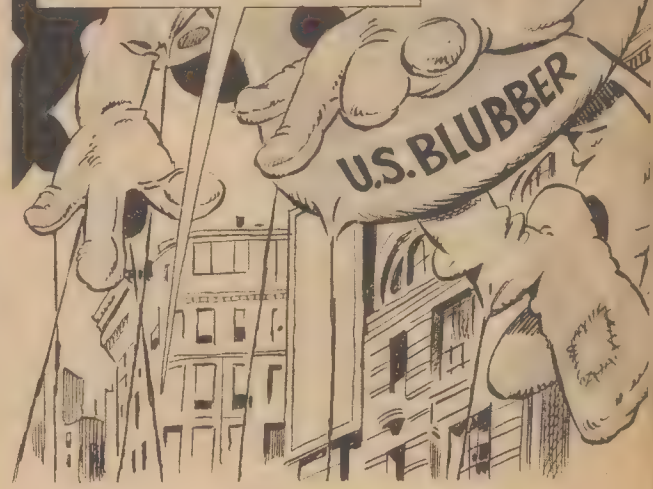

No wonder they look so pooped! Kids of today sure know how to liven things up! Which hotel did you say it was, Lorne?

Er, yes, they're a great bunch, Bet! And when I heard they had no money to get back home, I personally donated fifty cents to their fund!

Why that's breathtaking, colossal, dazzling, fabulous, and spectacular, Lorne! Not to mention cheap!

Hey! Look what's next in the line of march—one of MESSY's fantastic balloons! I think it's Superman ... no, I think it's Doris Day ... or is it the Partridge Family ...

Well, whatever it is, it's interesting to note that it takes 38 men to guide this giant balloon down Broadway!

And what's so interesting about that?

It's interesting that 38 grown men would get up on a holiday morning and walk 10 miles with an ugly mass of inflated rubber!

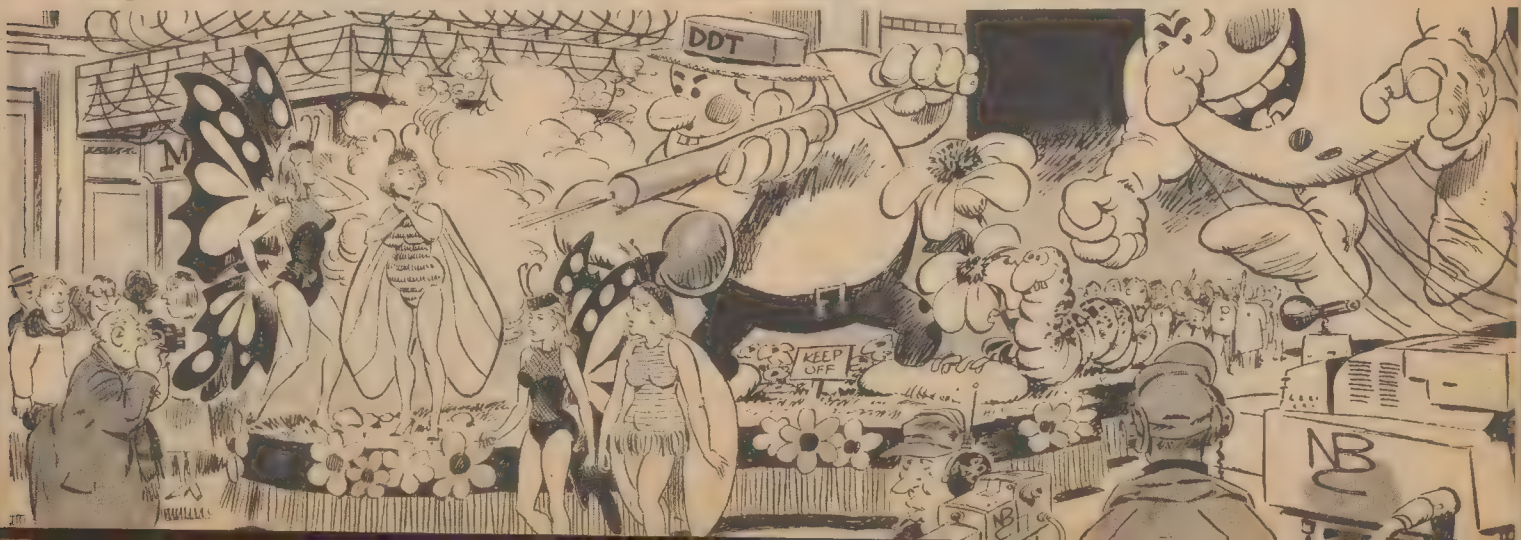

Here's our next marching band, Bet! It's the Chuckapocky High School in Chuckapocky, Rhode Island, U.S.A.! These boys and girls sold pickled herring from door to door to pay for their trip to New York!

That's obvious!

Here's one of MESSY's extraordinarily beautiful floats. It's called "Fantasy of Springtime", and if I didn't know better, I'd swear somebody slapped a new coat of paint on last year's "Fantasy of Summer" fiasco! Bet, why don't you describe this gorgeous float to our viewers who are not watching this extravaganza in color ...

Good idea, Lorne! It's black on the bottom, white on top, and gray on all four sides!

And here comes the Pitchalooky Prancers, from Pitchalooky, Ohio. 95 men wearing feathers and beads, long sequined capes, and pink velvet skirts! What a display!

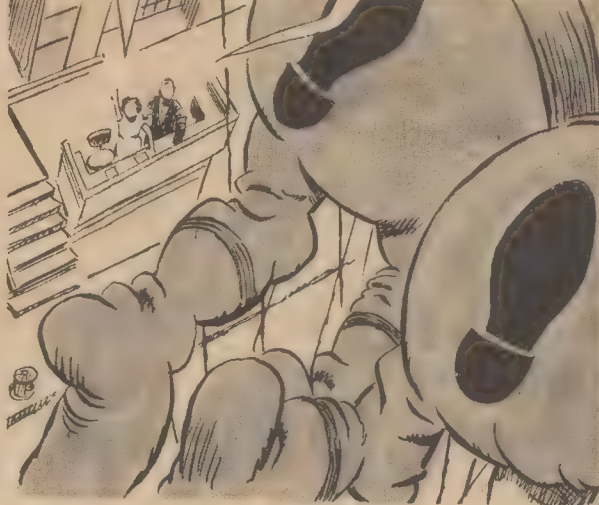

I'll say! They all play banjos while they act out a fairy story!

Who's acting?!

And here's another sensational balloon! Can you guess who it is this time, Lorne?

Charlie Brown? Spiro Agnew?

No! It's the Smothers Brothers!

I have some awe-inspiring statistics about these great MESSY balloons. Each one takes 2 years to build, requires 149 gallons of special paint, and stays up by means of 29,000 pounds of helium! Isn't that amazing, Betty?

Betty? Betty! BETTY! Wake up!

Huh? What? Where am I? The Orange Bowl Parade? The Rose Bowl Parade?

Here it comes now, folks! The moment we've all been waiting for... here comes Santa!

I hope he found a way to keep warm during his long ride down Broadway...

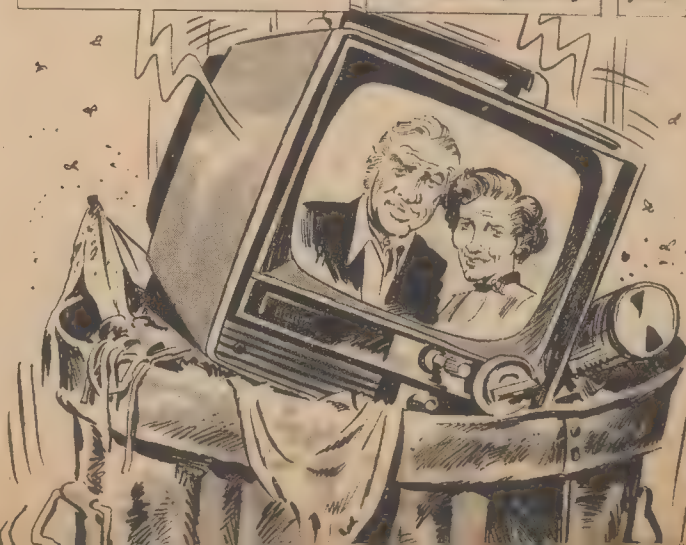

Happy St. Patrick's Day! Happy Arbor Day! Happy Bastille Day! Happy...

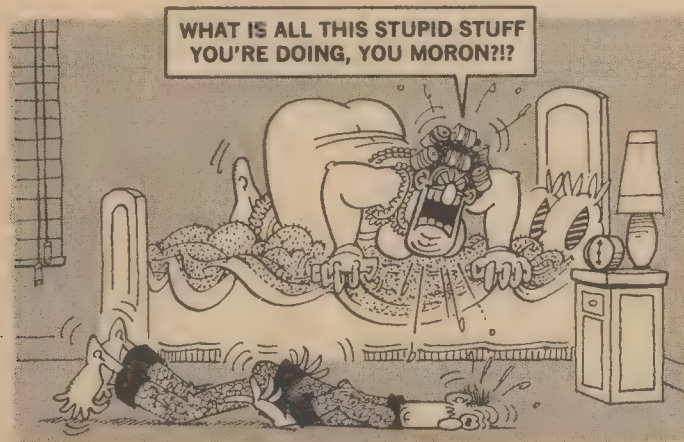

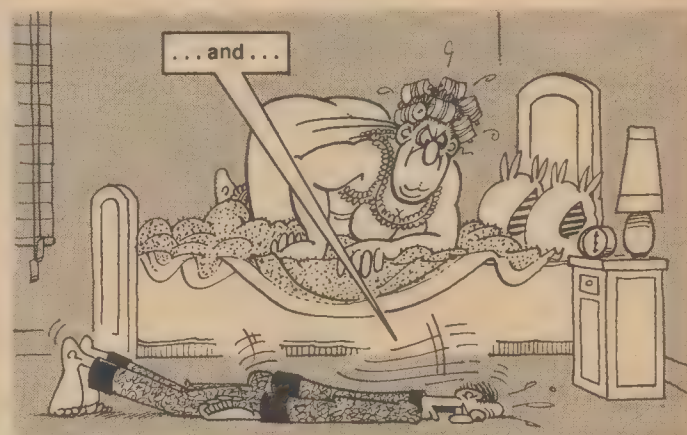

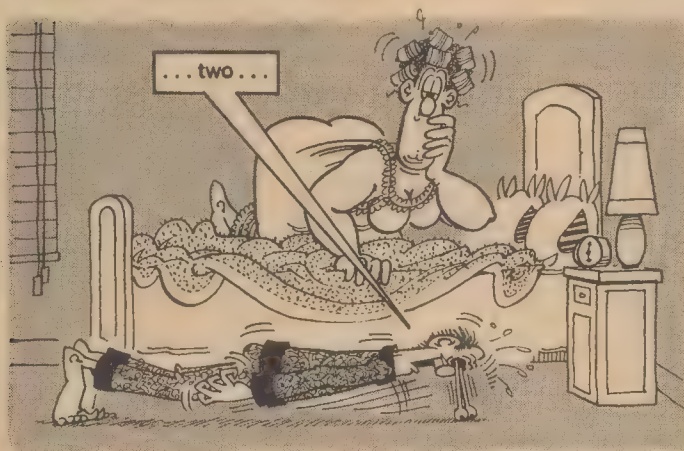

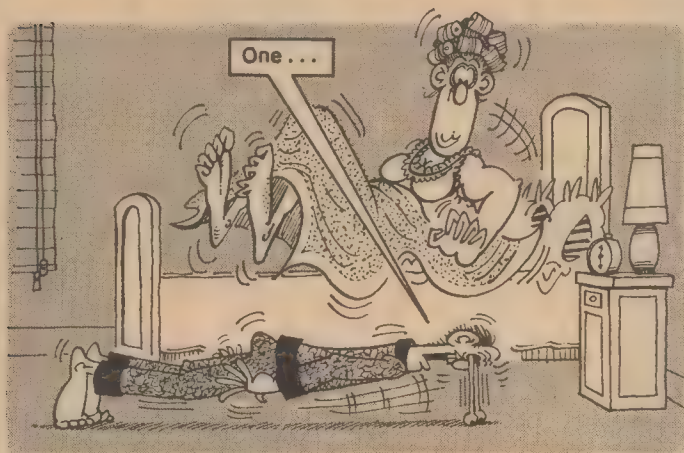

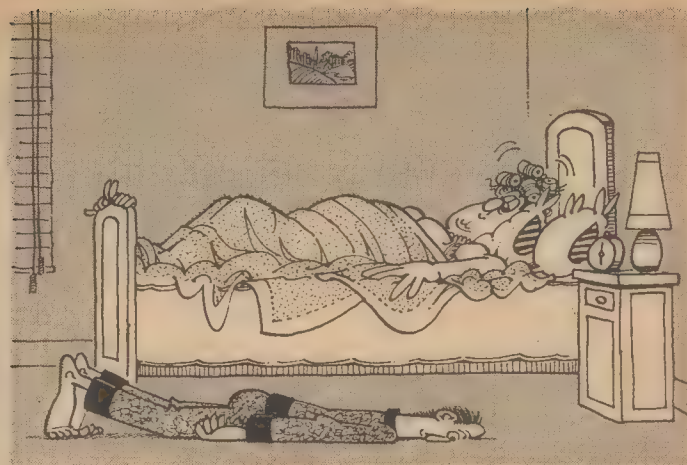

Well, another MESSY's parade is over, and we want to thank you for joining us for all the fun and excitement...

... and for letting us into your homes with this special Thanksgiving turkey!

See you next year!

POPULAR VARIETIES

PLATTIES & SWORDTAILS

There are many varieties of Plattsies and Swordtails. They are live-bearers rather than egg-bearers. Approximately once a month, each female will give birth to from 25 to 200 young, right before your very eyes in a matter of minutes . . . then eat them right before your very eyes in a matter of seconds.

NEON TETRAS

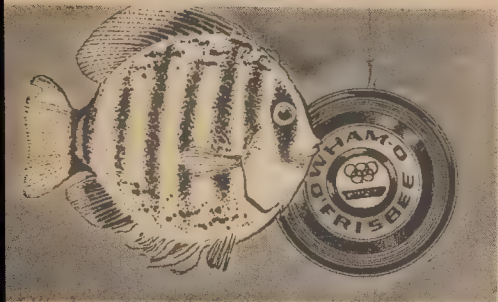

The Neon Tetra is a colorful little fish which usually costs less than a dollar. However, it is also a timid little fish, and one Neon Tetra will completely disappear in your tank, hiding behind plants or rocks. Neon Tetras are happiest, and are best displayed in schools of 200 or more.

CARDINAL TETRAS

The Cardinal is a larger version of the Neon, and is perfect for people with poor eyesight. Cardinals are also school fish, and mix well with Neons, providing the Neons outnumber them 4 to 1. A nice display is 100 Cardinals and 400 Neons, especially for the guy who owns the fish store.

DISCUS

The Discus is a large round sluggish brown fish which looks exactly like a discus. Since it hardly ever moves in the tank and is extremely expensive, many people have saved themselves a lot of money by going to a sporting goods store, buying an actual discus, and suspending it in their aquariums.

KISSING GOURAMIS

The Kissing Gourami is an attractive pink fish that derives its name from the fact that it spends all night and all day kissing and turning on any other Kissing Gourami around. A pair is a worthwhile purchase, as they are peaceful, colorful, decorative, and who knows, you might learn something.

RED TAILED SHARKS

The Red Tailed Shark is an attractive fish with a brilliant red tail which actually does resemble a vicious shark. However, this marvelous little fish is extremely docile, except when provoked. Then, it behaves like a vicious shark, killing other fish. Unfortunately, it is provoked by someone looking at it.

A TYPICAL SET-UP

TANK

Tanks come in many sizes. A good starter size is 10 gals. A tank is necessary because otherwise the fish, water and other junk will end up on the floor.....$18.00

FISH

100 Neons (described earlier)$100.00
25 Cardinals (described earlier)25.00
4 Angels (described earlier)8.00
6 Swordtails (described earlier)6.00
2 Mollies (not worth describing)4.00
6 Catfish (described ecchie)12.00

PLANTS

Although many live varieties of plants are available, most fish fanciers prefer plastic ones. They turn brown and rot just like the real live ones, only it takes longer.....$50.00

DEEP SEA DIVER

A cheap, plastic deep sea diver that stands on the bottom of the tank and looks exactly like a cheap plastic deep sea diver.....$8.00

S OF TROPICAL FISH

ANGEL FISH

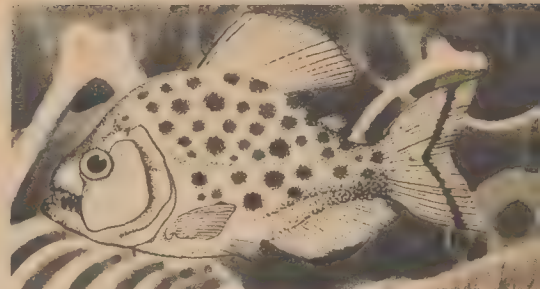

The Angel Fish is a very graceful and beautiful fish to watch, and an asset to any tank. However, despite popular belief, it is not called an Angel Fish because it resembles an angel. It is called an Angel Fish because it almost always dies within an hour after you get it home, and it becomes an angel.

SIAMESE FIGHTING FISH

The Siamese Fighting Fish is a rather dull-colored fish until it is put in a tank with another Siamese Fighting Fish. Then, it will display a myriad of fantastic colors. Unfortunately, two Siamese Fighting Fish will rip each other to pieces, so you'll have to look at the fantastic colors fast.

PIRANHA

The Piranha is a spectacular aquarium fish which only costs around $75.00. Besides eating up your life's savings, it will also chew up everything that comes into your tank, including other fish, your hand, your arm, your kid's arm, your kid, your neighbor's kid—etc. And then it'll chew up your tank!

HEADSTANDERS

An unusual fish, the Headstander gets its name from the fact that it stands on its head in the tank. Since it is very expensive, it is not recommended for beginners. Besides, all the fish in a beginner's tank will be standing on their heads eventually, which is what fish do—just before they croak.

CATFISH

Catfish, although fantastically ugly, are a "must" for your tank, as they eat up all the decayed food and messy dirty ecchy waste left by your other fish. Unfortunately, no one has yet come up with a fish that's willing to eat up all the decayed food and messy dirty ecchy waste left by the Catfish.

DOLPHIN

The Dolphin is a fascinating creature and a marvelous aquarium pet. It can play ball with you, leap up and grab food out of your hand, and may even try to communicate with you verbally. It is an ideal addition to any tank, providing the tank is as big as the ones at "Marineland of the Pacific".

FOR THE BEGINNER

CLAM SHELL

A clever device which emits a pretty bubble when it opens . . . and decapitates your most expensive fish when it closes.....$11.00

CASTLE

A porcelain castle that contains openings for the fish to swim in and out, except that they usually just swim in . . . and stay there forever.....$9.00

AIR STONE

Releases air bubbles into tank, creating pretty effect for a week, after which it rots and crumbles to the bottom.....$3.75

FILTER

Takes dirty slimy water from tank, filters it through charcoal, and releases dirty, slimy, charcoal-colored water back into tank....$17.00

AIR PUMP

The pump has 3 functions: It pumps air into tank, it operates filters and other gadgets, and it gives you a headache because it sounds like a jackhammer.....$29.50

AIR HOSES

Air hoses have 2 functions. They carry air from your pump to your equipment, and they are used to hang yourself when you realize that you've just wasted $301.25 on this utterly ridiculous hobby.

FISH AILMENTS AND THEIR REMEDIES

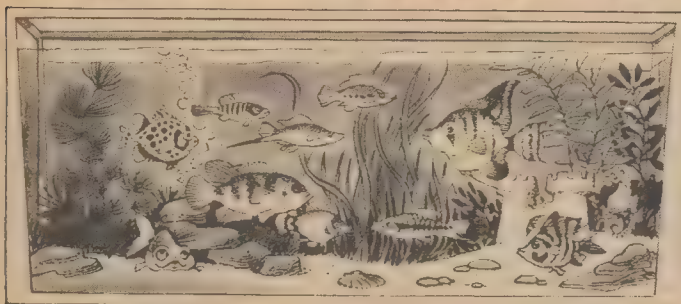

There are many varieties of Tropical Fish ailments—almost as many as there are varieties of Tropical Fish—and there is a different remedy or medicine available for each. The Tropical Fish fancier should keep a good supply of these remedies on hand at all time for emergencies, which—in the average tank—happens about once every seven minutes.

HERE ARE SOME EXAMPLES OF THE MANY TROPICAL FISH REMEDIES AVAILABLE

HOW TO TELL WHEN THERE IS TROUBLE IN THE TANK

The tank above is charming and attractive. Note that the water is clear, the plants are green and thriving, and the fish are active and colorful. Obviously, there is nothing wrong in this tank. Obviously, this is a healthy tank. And obviously, this tank is still in the Tropical Fish Store!

The tank above is cloudy, dirty and ecchy. It could mean trouble like: overfeeding, not enough plants, too many fish, not enough air, etc. Actually, it is none of these things. This is a perfectly normal tank. Let's face it—all fish tanks look like this after a few weeks at home.

SOME FISH DISEASES AND WHAT TO DO FOR THEM

FISH DISEASE: "Mouth Fungus"

HOW TO SPOT IT:	WHAT TO DO FOR IT:
Fish has bad breath.	Avoid kissing it for a few weeks.

FISH DISEASE: "Swim Bladder Infection"

HOW TO SPOT IT:	WHAT TO DO FOR IT:
Fish swim upside down.	Turn your tank upside down.

FISH DISEASE: "Extreme Dehydration"

HOW TO SPOT IT:	WHAT TO DO FOR IT:
Fish lie on bottom of tank.	Water has evaporated. Fill up tank again.

FISH DISEASE: "Shake and Shimmy"

HOW TO SPOT IT:	WHAT TO DO FOR IT:
Fish are nervous and dart about.	Remove neighbor's cat from tank.

FISH DISEASE: "Ich" or "Dandruff"

HOW TO SPOT IT:	WHAT TO DO FOR IT:
Fish is covered with white spots.	Stop leaning over tank when feeding.

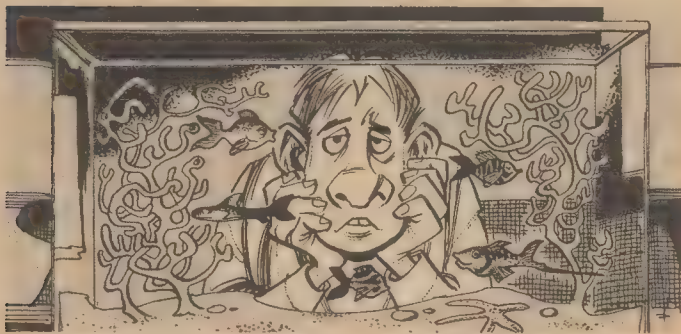

FISH DISEASE: "Fin and Tail Rot"

HOW TO SPOT IT:	WHAT TO DO FOR IT:
Fish seems to be rotting away.	Remove fish and bury it. It's dead.

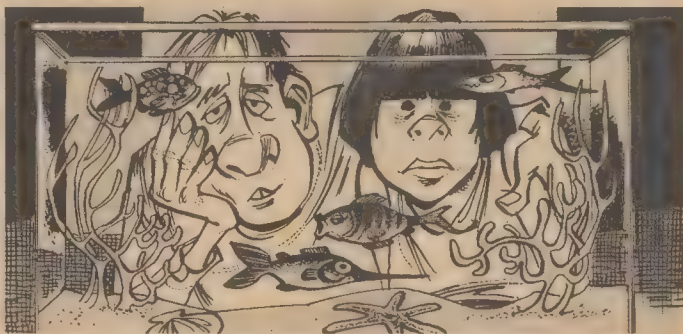

FUN THINGS TO DO WITH TROPICAL FISH

Tropical Fish, we are told, are lots of fun, and there are many exciting things you can do with these little pets once you've acquired a tank and set-up. Here are just a few of the many exciting fun things you can do:

You can sit and watch them as they swim back and forth.

You can invite your girl over, cook her dinner, and sit around and watch them fish as they swim back and forth.

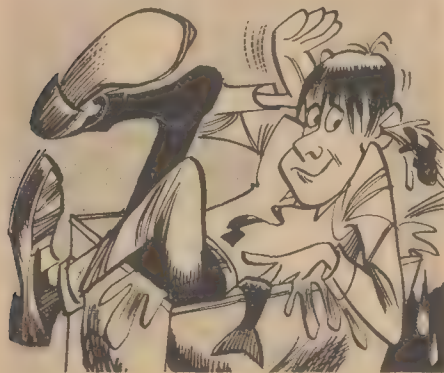

You can invite your girl's parents over to join you and your parents for a barbecue, and afterwards, you can all sit and watch them dumb fish as they swim back and forth.

You can throw a wild teenage party for 100 kids, with hot dogs, hamburgers and cokes, and you can all sit around and watch them dumb, stupid fish as they swim back and forth.

SIX WAYS IN WHICH A TROPICAL FISH TANK CAN MAKE YOUR PARTY A RESOUNDING SUCCESS

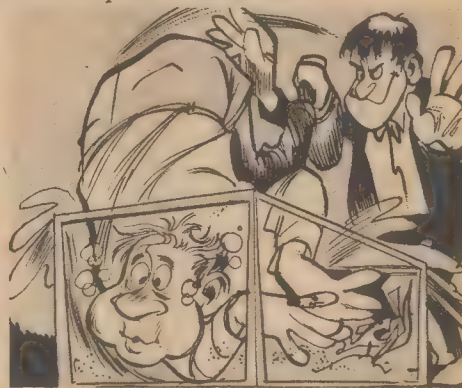

You can fall into it.

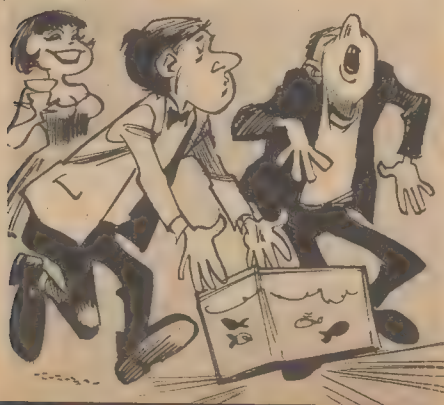

Someone else can fall into it.

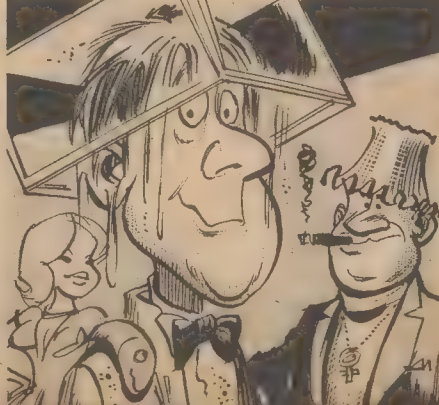

You can push someone into it.

You can carry it and drop it.

You can try wearing it like a hat.

You can all get stoned and drink it.

THE LIGHTER SIDE OF...

You're always tinkering with that Hi-Fi set-up of yours! From the minute you walk in the door until you go to bed, it's noise . . . noise . . . NOISE!

You never have a kind word for me anymore! You never take me out anymore! All you do, night after night, is fool with that—THING!!

What is it? Tell me! What's so fascinating about a radio that you prefer it to me?!

I can turn it off when I want to!

I'm looking for a birthday present for my husband! That ornamental baseball looks interesting!

That's not really an ornamental baseball! That's a RADIO!

Oh, is it? Well—how about that pen and pencil desk set?

That's a radio, too! They hide radios in some interesting things these days, Ma'am!

That old-fashioned phone looks attractive!

That's a radio, too, Ma'am!

Well, if I'm going to get a radio, I might as well get a radio that LOOKS like a radio! I'll take that one . . .

Must that radio be blaring into your ear wherever you go?!

Mother, will you stop treating me like a baby! I'm all grown up!!

Let's face it, Mother! I'm fourteen, now! FOURTEEN!! I've thrown away my old security blanket! I'm a fully mature woman, now!

SO STOP CRITICIZING ME!!

Dear, I can't hear a word you say with that thing going . . .

. . . so will you please shut off your NEW SECURITY BLANKET!!

EQUIPMENT

ARTIST & WRITER: DAVE BERG

That son of ours left his big, complicated Hi-Fi set on! I want to shut it off—but look at all the knobs and switches! How in heck do you do it??

Hah! Listen to the big leading member of the Women's Lib Movement asking her male chauvinist husband how to handle electronic equipment!

Your mouth may be going all the time, demanding equality with men—but, as you can see, you're not our equals when it comes to technology or complicated machinery!

Admit you're inferior in many areas, and I'll show you how simple it is!

Okay! Okay! I'm an inferior female! Now—show me how to shut the darn thing off!!

You pull out the plug!

That's not a radio! That's a whiskey flask!

Oh, my goodness! What happened to you?!

I... I just took a terrible beating! I—I was completely surrounded by FOUR of them! Two were hitting me from the front, and two from the rear!

Four big hoodlums?!

No... four big LOUDSPEAKERS!!

Our son just demonstrated the new stereo tape player he installed in his car!

Oh, boy! Oh, boy! It's snowing! That means my school will be closed an' I won't have to go!

Don't be so sure, smarty! Turn on the radio! If it IS closed, they announce it on the air!

Aw, that radio's been giving me nothing but trouble lately! Don't bother to turn it on! It hardly ever works!

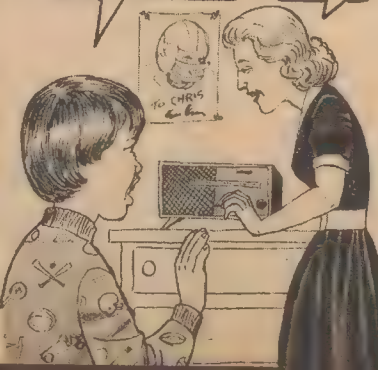

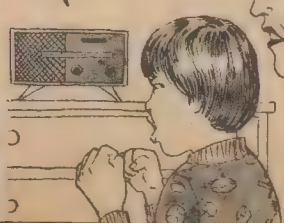

It seems to be working fine!

... and despite the storm, all schools will be open today!

DARN!!

Okay, Buster! You heard it yourself! Now get dressed, and go to school!

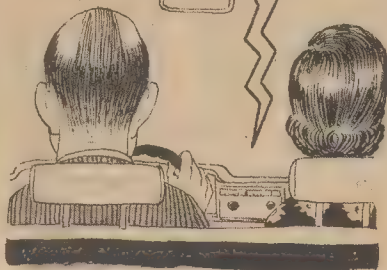

See!? I told you that radio gives me nothing but trouble!!

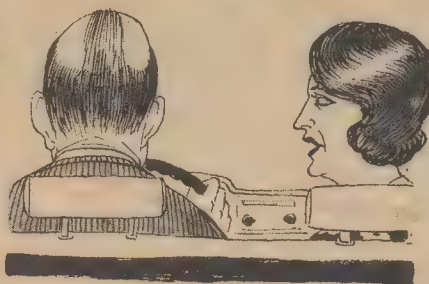

I'm getting a little sleepy!
Better turn on the radio to keep me awake!

... and with 578 deaths reported so far, it looks as if this four-day holiday weekend is well on its way to setting an all-time record for holiday casualties!

Okay, you can shut it off!

But you told me to turn it on because you were getting sleepy!

I'M PLENTY WIDE
AWAKE NOW!!

Hey, I see you have one of those new Digital AM -
FM Alarm
Clocks! How does it work?

First I check with the phone company to see if my digits are correct! Then,
I switch this knob
to AM or FM! Then
I tune in a station with this knob ...

Then, with this knob, I set the time I want to awake! And with this knob, I set it for either
"radio" or "alarm"! This knob keeps the radio playing until I fall asleep! And this knob controls the time it will play until it shuts itself off!

Sounds like a great way to wake up in the morning!

It's also a great way to put myself to sleep
at night!

You mean because it lulls you into dreamland with soft music?!

No, I mean by the time
I'm finished setting
the whole thing up,
I'm totally exhausted!!

It's no use! I can't get the engine started!

You mean we're stranded out here in the middle of nowhere!?

I'm afraid so!
I guess we'd better use the radio ...

Well, okay ...

... but I don't know what good it's gonna do!

HAROLD!
DINNER'S
ON THE TABLE!

Save your breath, Mom!
Dad can't hear you!

He can't?!
Why not?

He's locked in the den, listening to the "Brad Crandall Phone-In Show" with his earphones on!

That means he can't hear ANY outside noises! So there's absolutely no way to communicate with him!

Really?
Well,
I'm not licked yet!

Hello ... Brad Crandall?
Will you please tell my husband, Harold, that his dinner is on the table!

Leave a light on . . . and the radio going! That way, burglars will think we're home, and they won't try to break in and steal things!

That's a good idea!

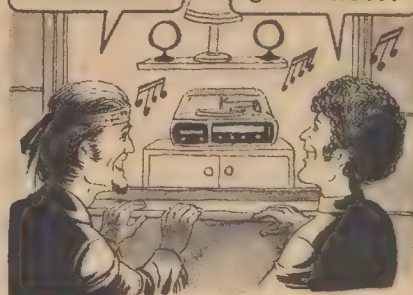

Hey—will you listen to that?

Boy! That sounds like a really expensive set-up!

I was right! There it is! Wow . . . what a beauty! It must've cost a fortune!

Yeah! And those dumb jerks just drove away and left it playing! We—we oughta go in there . . .

Yeah!

. . . and steal it!!

Calling Jim Barondess! Calling Jim Barondess! This is Mitch Lipman! Do you read me? Do you read me? Over . . .

This is Jim Barondess! I read you loud and clear! Over and out!

Gee! I can hear Jim so clear! Walkie-Talkies really work great!

They sure do!

And I don't even have my Walkie-Talkie ON!!

I didn't know the Groom was hard of hearing!

He's NOT! . . . Oh, you mean that thing in his ear? Steve is a baseball nut! There's a transistor radio in his pocket, and he's actually listening to the ball game while he's greeting people on the receiving line!

I want to wish you both all the happiness in the world . . .

Thank you!

This must be the happiest day of your life!

Oh, it is!

BELIEVE ME, it is!

THE METS JUST WON!!

Are you SURE you don't want to come along?

I'm sure! I'm sure! I really don't mind! I LIKE being alone! I'll turn on some soft music and read a good book!

HEY! What's the matter with the radio?! It's—it's BROKEN!!

Oh, my gosh! No radio!! I—I don't like being THAT alone!!

HEY! WAIT FOR ME!

A radio?! Are you still using that old "has-been"?! Like, get with it, Man! Radios are out!

Cassettes, Man! That's what's "in" today! Cassettes! Anybody who listens to a radio... with all those commercials and boring D. J.'s... has gotta be out of his ever-lovin' mind!

And you're in control, Man! You make your own program! You can get anything you want on a Cassette today!

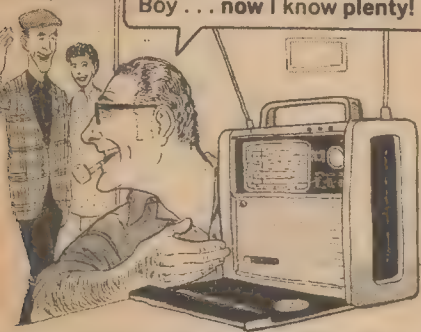

Really? Can you get what I'm listening to...? Today's football game?!

Hi, Sidney! What's new?

This shortwave radio with international bands is new! I got it last month and I've been listening to broadcasts from all around the world! Boy... now I know plenty!

I know the Rugby scores in England! I know about air pollution in Japan! I know about the bad crops in India, and the typhoon damage in Thailand, and the drought in Australia!

So what else is new?

The house next door burned to the ground last week!

Really?! That I didn't know!

WILL YOU STOP TALKING SO LOUD?! I'M TRYING TO STUDY!

WILL YOU STOP VACUUMING SO LOUD?! I'M TRYING TO STUDY!

WILL YOU STOP PLAYING SO LOUD?! I'M TRYING TO STUDY!

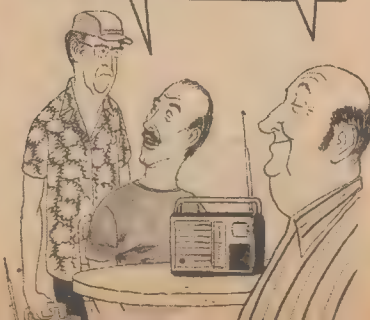

WILL YOU STOP STUDYING SO LOUD?!!

Did you hear that News broadcast?! I tell you, the world is going mad! I'm sick with worry over what's happening today!

I know what you mean! I feel the same way when I listen to the radio!

I don't know what you guys are talking about! I'M not worried at all!

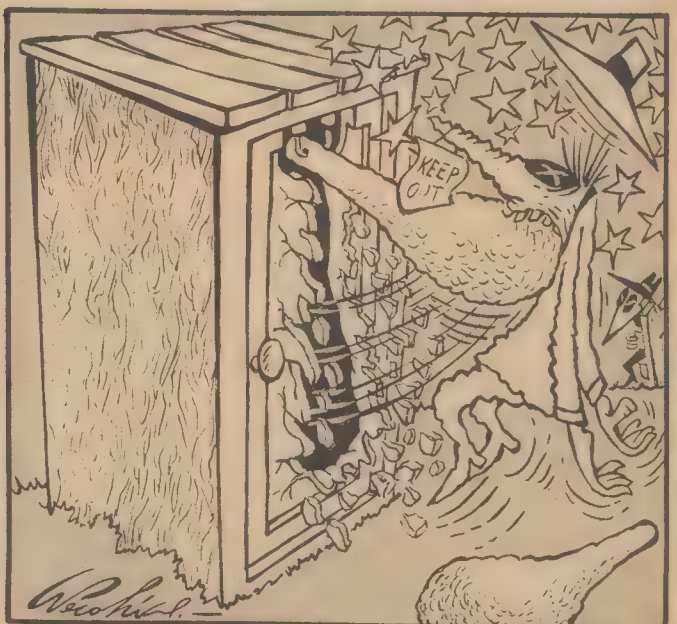

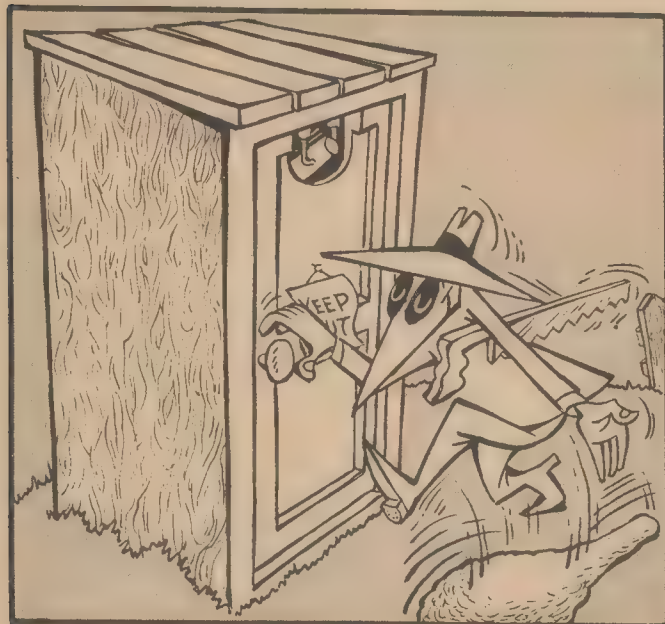

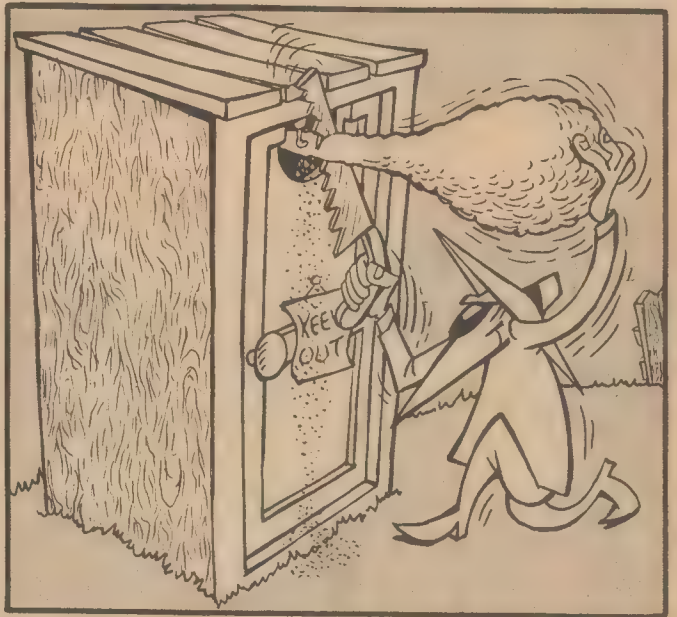

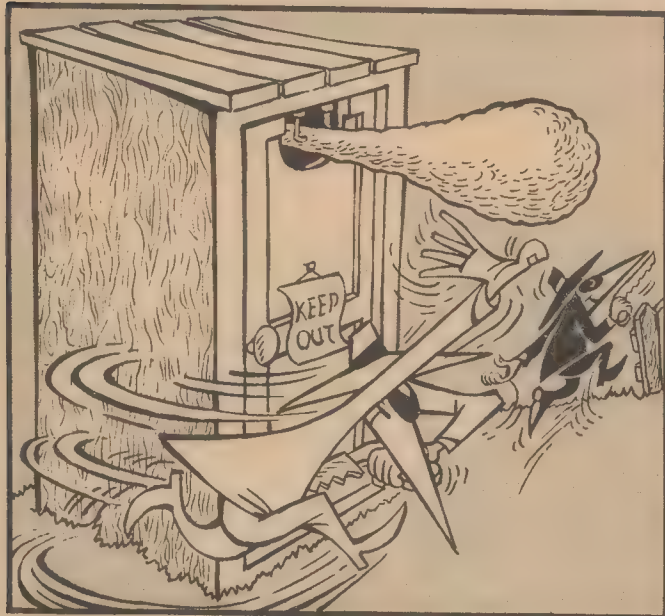

Y-YOU'RE NOT WORRIED?!? Listen—anybody who's not worried nowadays ought to have his head examined!!

Never mind his head!

First... he ought to have his RADIO examined!!

THE SEXUAL REVOLUTION

WRITER: FRANK JACOBS

To A Make-Out Artist

You swing with every chick you meet;
You're just a sex-mad creature;
This week you've had a stewardess,
Three stenos and a teacher;
On every date you've always got
A brand-new girl in hand;
Perhaps it's 'cause one night with you
Is all that they can stand!

To An Obscene Phone Caller

At ten o'clock in your hometown
Some phone begins to ring;
And when the party picks it up
You do your lurid thing;
You murmur your obscenities
With lewd, salacious glee;
With all the smut on sale today,
How nice to get you free!

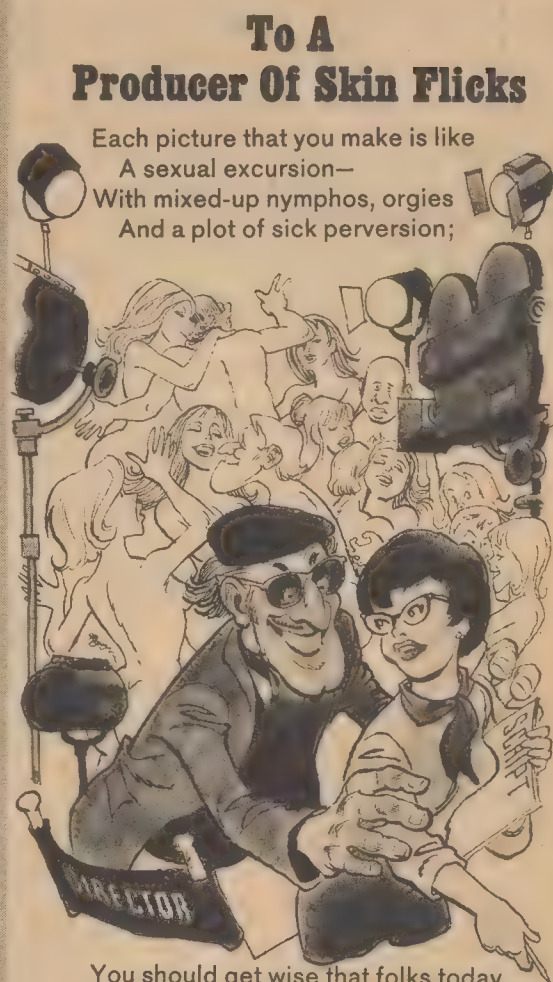

To A Reluctant Female

With sex so big, it's time that we Both joined the revolution;
And yet, my pet, you still refuse
To make a contribution;
Let's hope one day some sign of lust
Within your heart appears;
I only bring it up 'cause we've Been wed for seven years!

To A Gay Liberationist

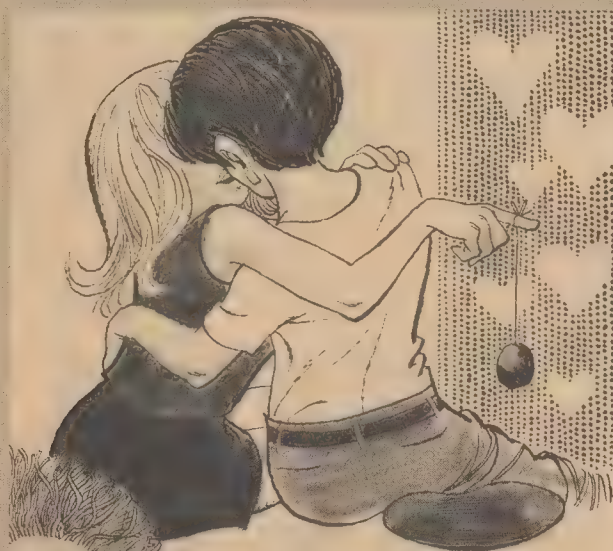

Down city streets throughout the land
You're marching by the score,
And though you're screaming for your rights
It's all a crashing bore,
You shout that you are victimized
By bigoted attacks,
Forgive us if we're more concerned
With Indians and Blacks!

To A Producer Of Skin Flicks

Each picture that you make is like
A sexual excursion—
With mixed-up nymphos, orgies
And a plot of sick perversion;

You should get wise that folks today
Don't think your films are groovy;
With sex in real-life like it is,
Who needs a dirty movie?

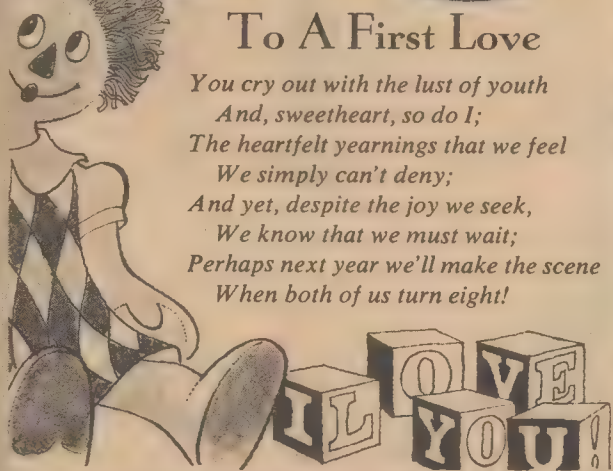

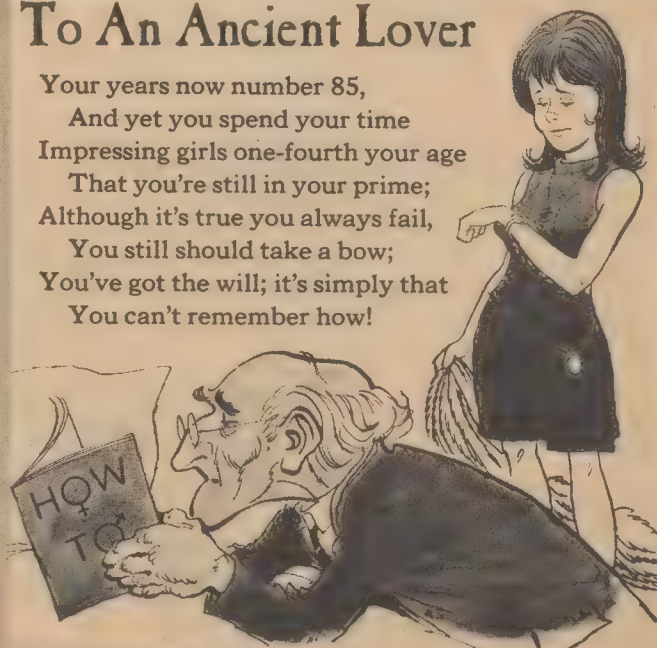

To A First Love

You cry out with the lust of youth
And, sweetheart, so do I;
The heartfelt yearnings that we feel
We simply can't deny;
And yet, despite the joy we seek,
We know that we must wait;
Perhaps next year we'll make the scene
When both of us turn eight!

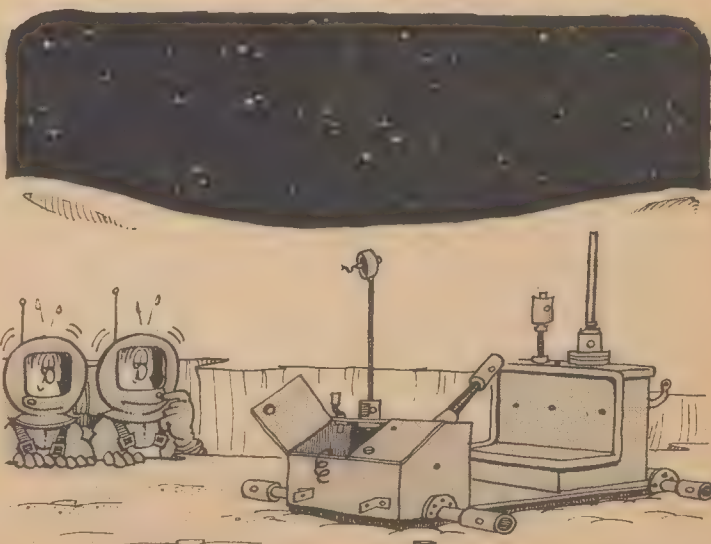

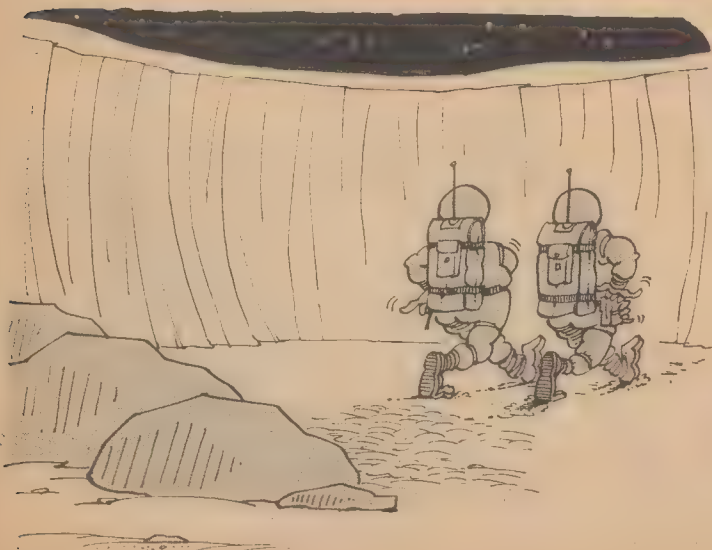

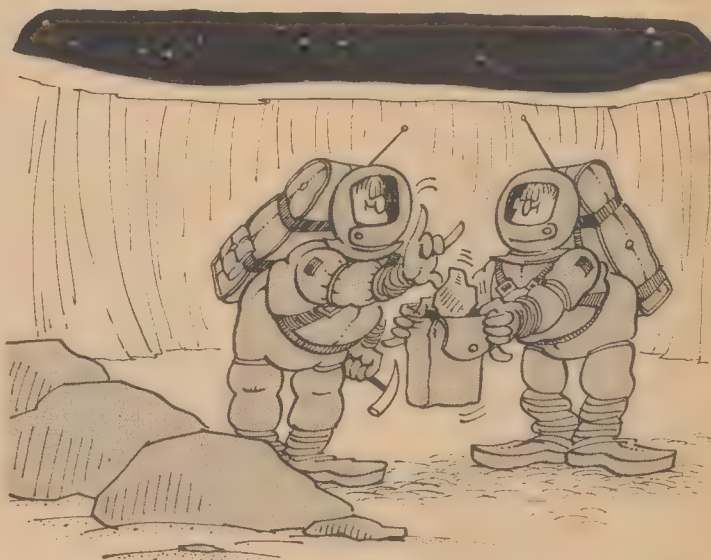

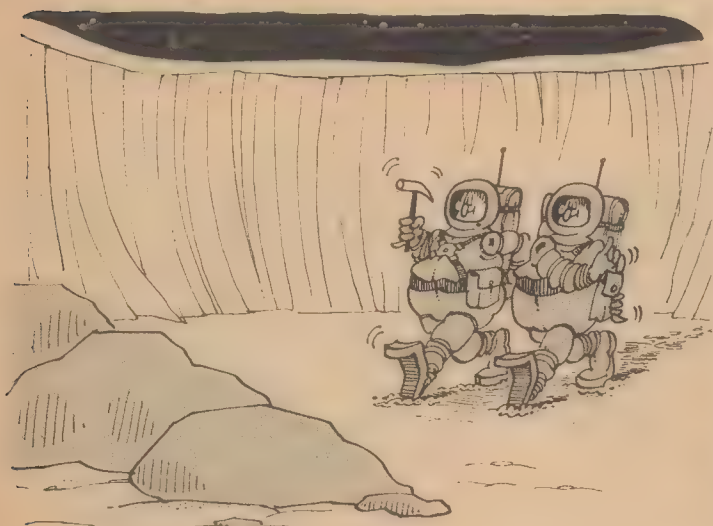

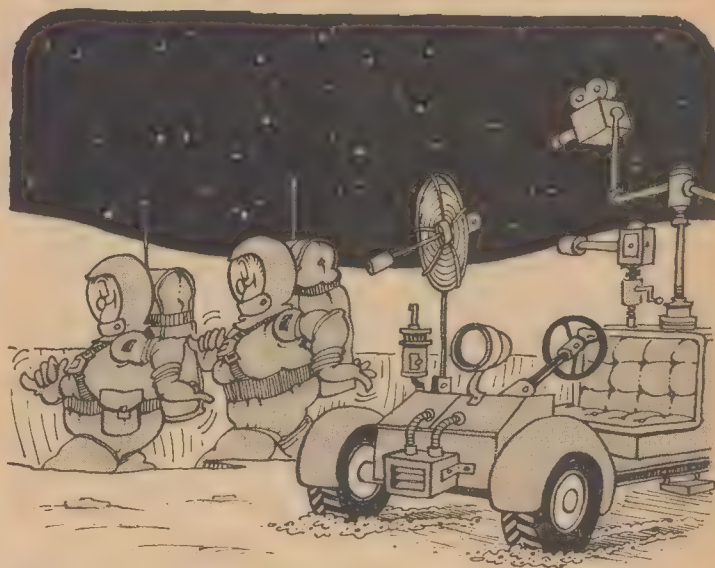

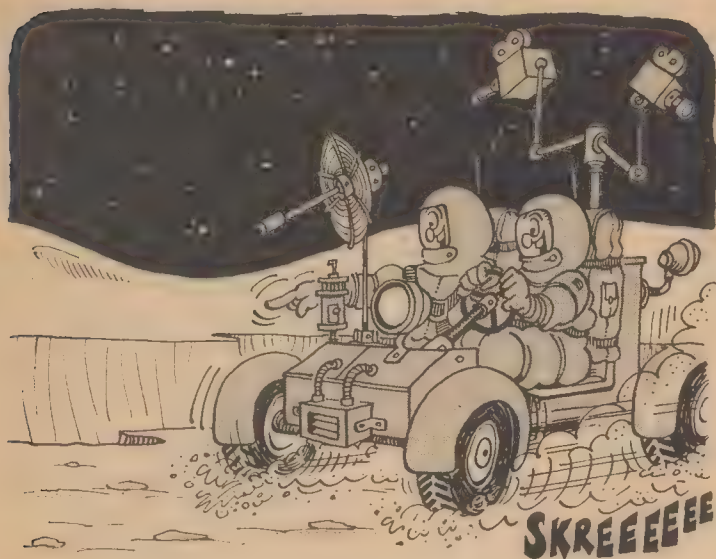

To An Ancient Lover

Your years now number 85,
And yet you spend your time
Impressing girls one-fourth your age
That you're still in your prime;
Although it's true you always fail,
You still should take a bow;
You've got the will; it's simply that
You can't remember how!

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

... he says, "We can't go on meeting like this!" ... and you're both single!

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

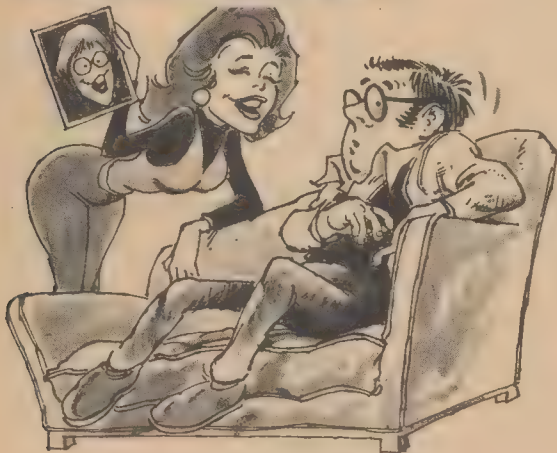

... he's no longer interested in your root canal work!

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

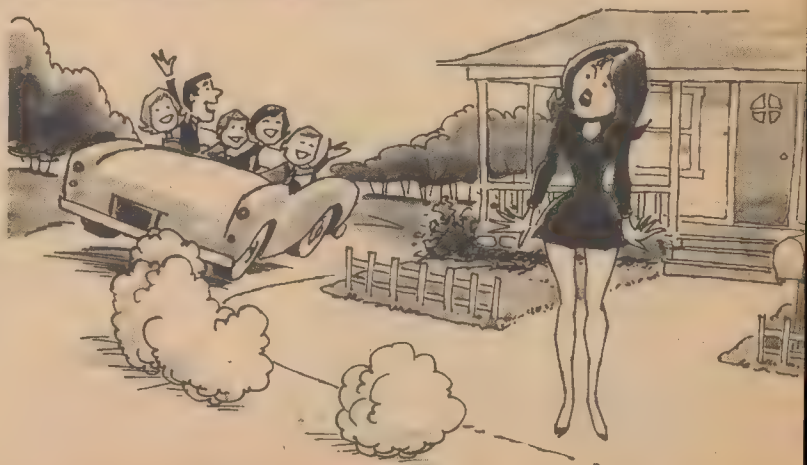

... he takes you to a "McDonald's" on the anniversary of your first date.

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

... she suddenly announces she has "just the right girl for you!"

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

... he offers to drive the gang home, and you're the first one he drops off!

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

... you notice that, lately, whenever you're out together, he yawns a lot and looks at his watch!

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

... he starts talking about kissing and sex from a hygienic point of view!

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

... he asks you to return his books you borrowed, even though you're not through reading them.

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

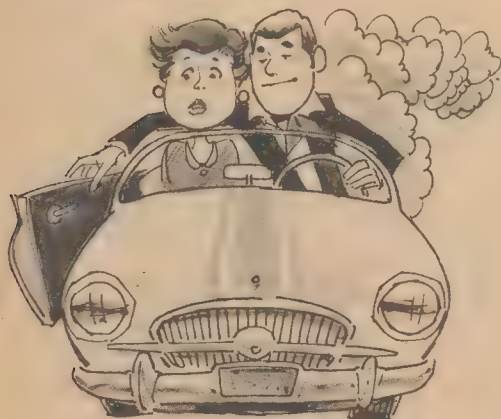

... she tells you that no matter what happens, she'd like to always have you as a friend!

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

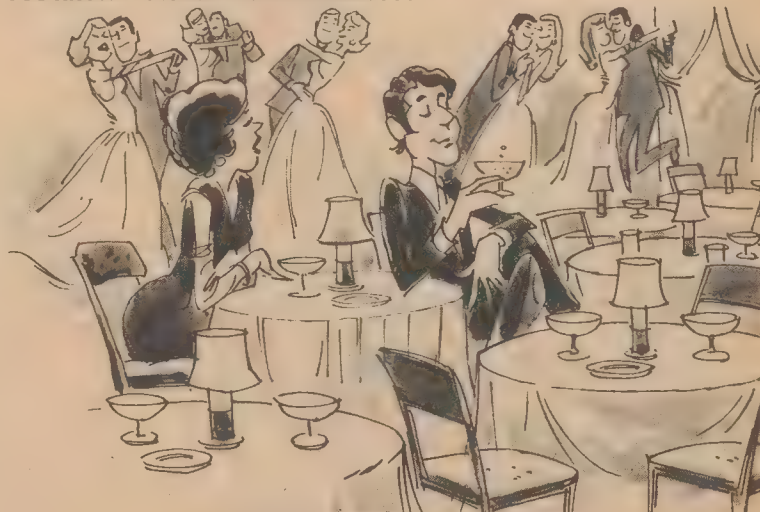

... you discover he's gotten an unlisted number, and he neglected to tell you about it.

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

... he drives you home after a date and leaves the motor running!

You Know It's REALLY OVER When ...

... he only dances the fast numbers with you, and sits out the slow romantic ones!

Ever since Hollywood blew the censorship lid off, and you can say or do anything in a motion picture these days, all we've been getting is a steady stream of raw sewage called "Now Movies". Recently, Hollywood outdid itself with a movie that is nothing more than vulgarity and sordid sex. So, go see it! You'll love it! We're referring, of course, to the movie about those two characters: the obscene-talking sexy call girl, and the prudish inhibited writer . . . otherwise known as . . .

THE FOUL AND THE PRISSY CATS

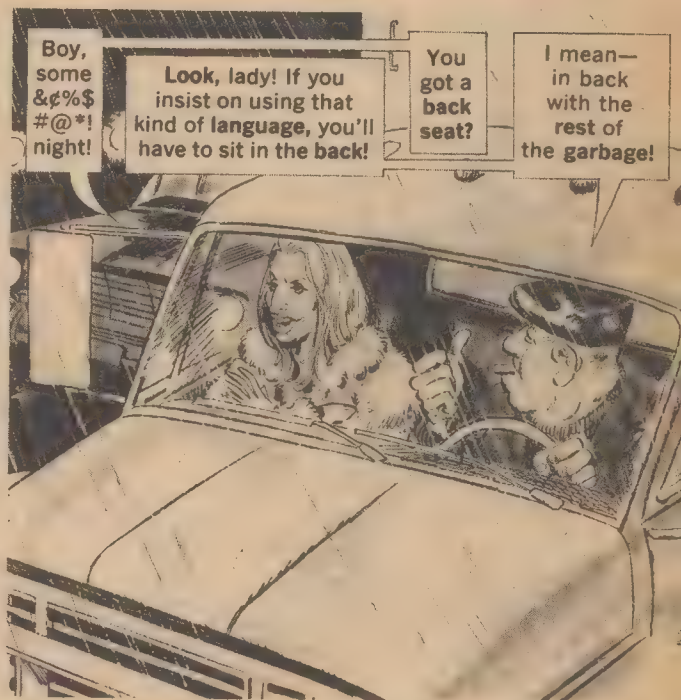

ARTIST: ANGELO TORRES

WRITER: STAN HART

Hi! I'm Dooris . . . a part-time model . . . a some-time hooker . . . and a full-time yenta! If you like four-letter words, you'll love me!

Right now, it's pouring out . . . I'm getting soaked to my skin . . . and I'm trying to get home! So tonight, I'll let ANYBODY pick me up!

Come to think of it, tonight's no different from any other night!

Wow!
This is absolutely amazing!

What? That you were able to pick up someone so great on a night like this?

No, that I was able to pick up someone so DRY on a night like this!

Shut up and read this
DRY newspaper!

There are SOME dirty old men in this town who like to use young women for their warped desires! Isn't that a problem for you?

Yeah, a big problem!
There aren't enough of those dirty old men to go around!
Business stinks!

I—I didn't know you were just a common street walker!

Actually,
I'm not!
But lately,
I've been—as they say—"up against it!"

Up against
WHAT?

For $20.00,
I can be up against
YOU!

$20.00?! But you're not even pretty!

EVERYONE's pretty! I'm a novelty!

Damn it!
Another
rejection slip!

How can you tell? You haven't even opened it?

When it's addressed to "Occupant",
you kinda know!

I've had complaints about the noise your typewriter makes at night!

Who ever heard of someone complaining about typewriter noise?!!
It just doesn't make any sense!

Listen—you think this is bad!? We still got over an hour to go!

I know who's complaining! But she shouldn't talk! Look for yourself at what she's doing —right out in the open where everyone in the world can see!

I can't see a THING!!

How about now?

An old man is giving her a $20.00 bill! I've never been so shocked in my life!

Because you didn't know what she is?

No—because she always charges me THIRTY!!
I'm throwing her out!!

I'm a very timid intellectual who leads a sheltered life, so I use my tape recorder to imitate reality! F'rinstance, when someone bangs at my door, I use my "Dog Barking" band—

... or when I'm feeling unhappy, I use my "Loving Mommy" band ...

... or when I'm feeling lonely, I use my "Making Out" band ...

I—I also happen to be a very UNLUCKY intellectual!

You no good &£%$ #* @! You squealed on me! I hate your dirty &£%$* @ guts!

That's terrible!

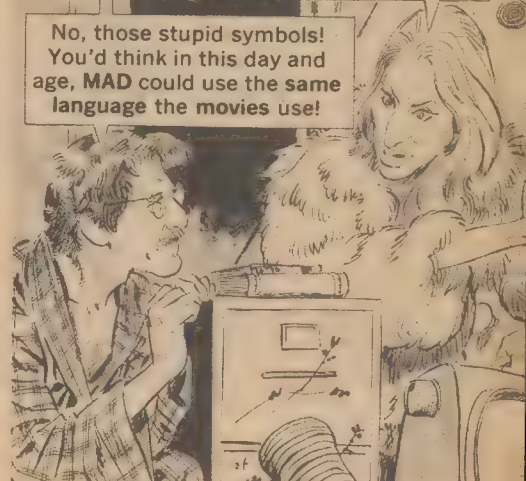

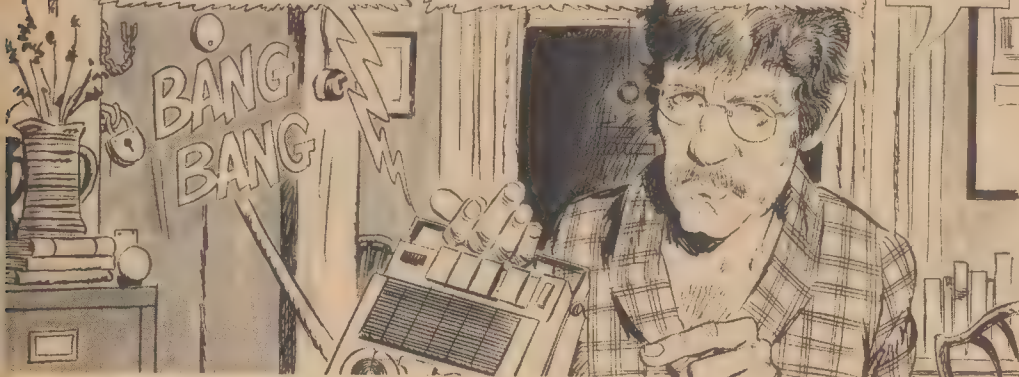

What? My cursing?

No, those stupid symbols! You'd think in this day and age, MAD could use the same language the movies use!

Arf! Arf! Grow! Woof! Woof!!

Dress warm, Booby, and don't forget to wear your rubbers!

Please ... not tonight! I've got a headache!

You &£%$ #* @! Why'd you have me thrown out of this vermin-infested, rat-ridden, disgusting old slum apartment house?!!

I didn't want you to give the place a bad name!

I'm staying here tonight! Lucky for you I don't hold any grudges!

I don't hold anything I'm not paid to hold!

Really? Why not?

I want your opinion on something—

Do you think this outfit is too much?

I—I think the hands are in the wrong place!

They should be covering your mouth!!

I—I can't understand it! When I look at you, I—I get all confused!

Don't you know what a beautiful, sexy girl in a filmy negligee is supposed to look like?

Yes, I do! That's what's so confusing!

Hic! Oh, boy! Hic! I got a bad case of the hiccups! You gotta scare me—Hic!—so I can get rid of them!

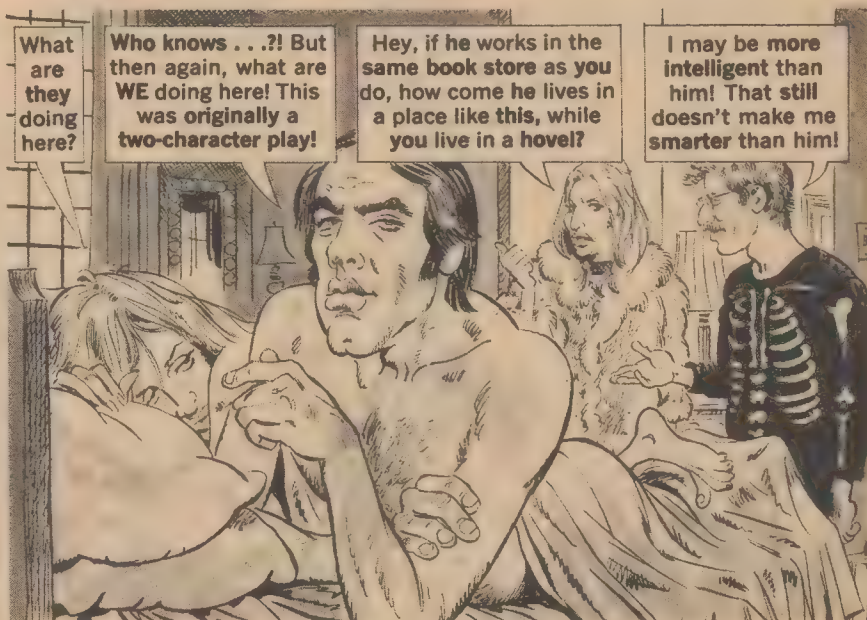

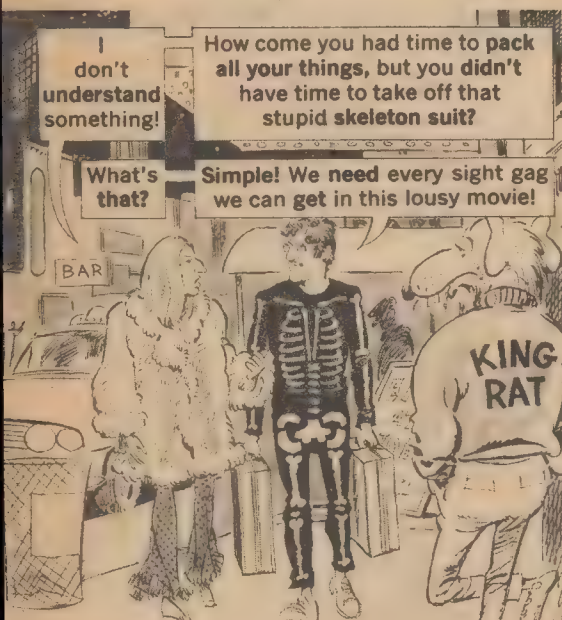

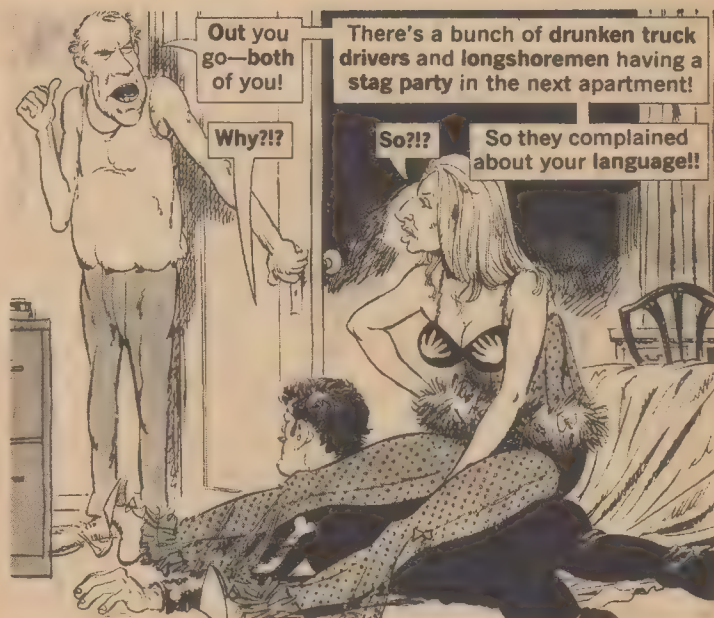

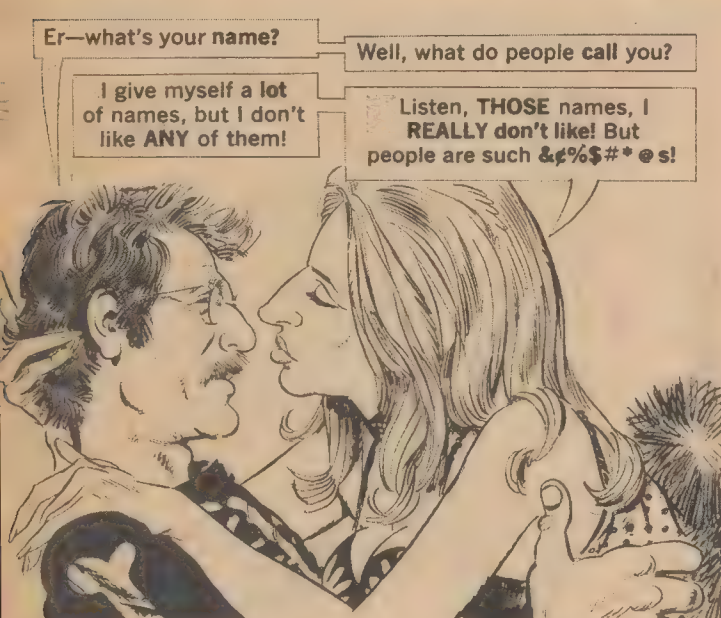

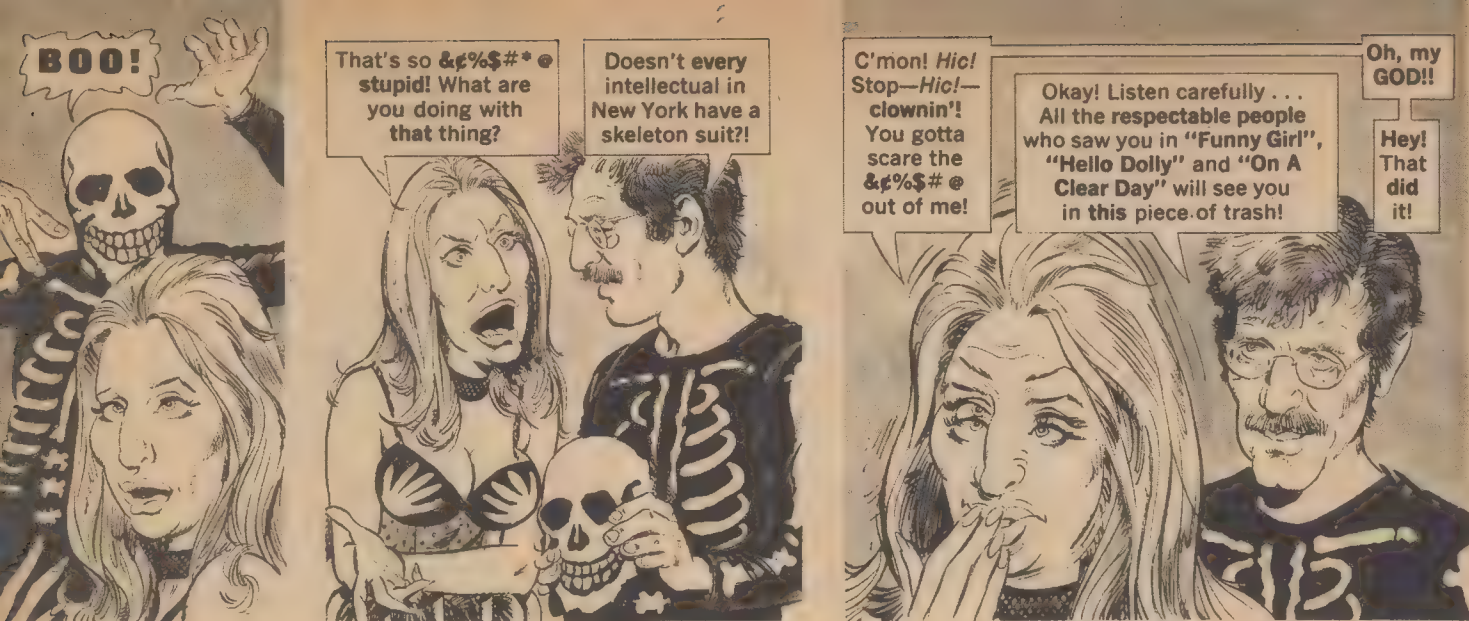

I have just the thing! Close your eyes and don't look 'til I tell you to!

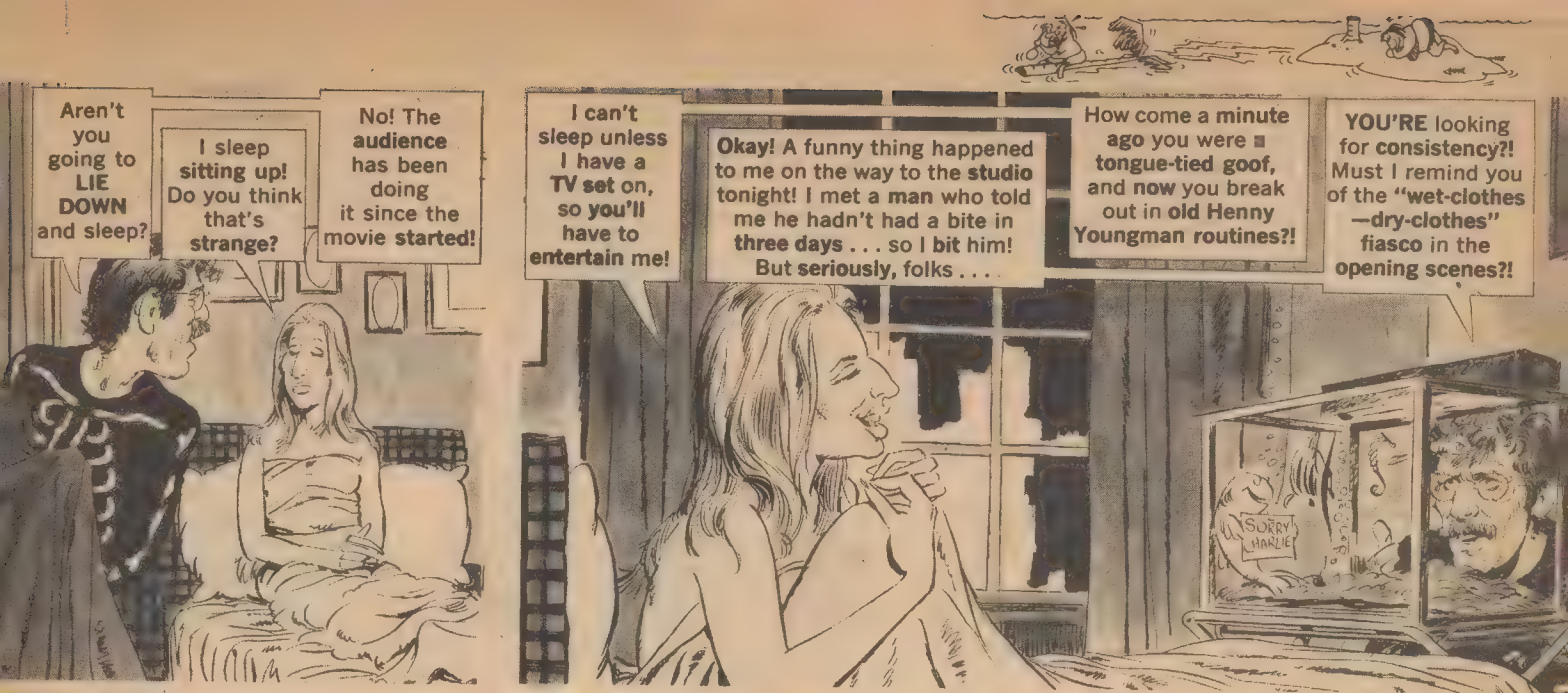

Now—open your eyes!

Why ... she's lovely! She's—Hic!—a born star! She has magic!

Hmmmm! Okay—I know! Wait here!

Aren't you going to LIE DOWN and sleep?

I sleep sitting up! Do you think that's strange?

No! The audience has been doing it since the movie started!

I can't sleep unless I have a TV set on, so you'll have to entertain me!

Okay! A funny thing happened to me on the way to the studio tonight! I met a man who told me he hadn't had a bite in three days ... so I bit him! But seriously, folks ...

How come a minute ago you were ■ tongue-tied goof, and now you break out in old Henny Youngman routines?!

YOU'RE looking for consistency?! Must I remind you of the "wet-clothes—dry-clothes" fiasco in the opening scenes?!

Let me read you a story I wrote ... "The sun vomited up daylight on the Earth ..."

Boy, you really know how to turn a girl on! Come in here with me ...

Are you making advances to me?

No, I'm stark naked under here because I'm going shopping for bagels and lox at the Deli! Boy—you're some dummy!

I—I really think we'd enjoy TALKING more!

Oops! Sorry! How clumsy of me ...

Kiss ... kiss ... kiss ... and stuff ...

You were right! Talking WOULD have been more fun! You're a lousy writer ... a lousy lover ... and a lousy Henny Youngman! Good-bye!!

Where are you going?

For a walk!

Wait! I'll go with you! I'm also a lousy walker!!

Wow! That girl is UGLY!

And that guy is making an ass out of himself!

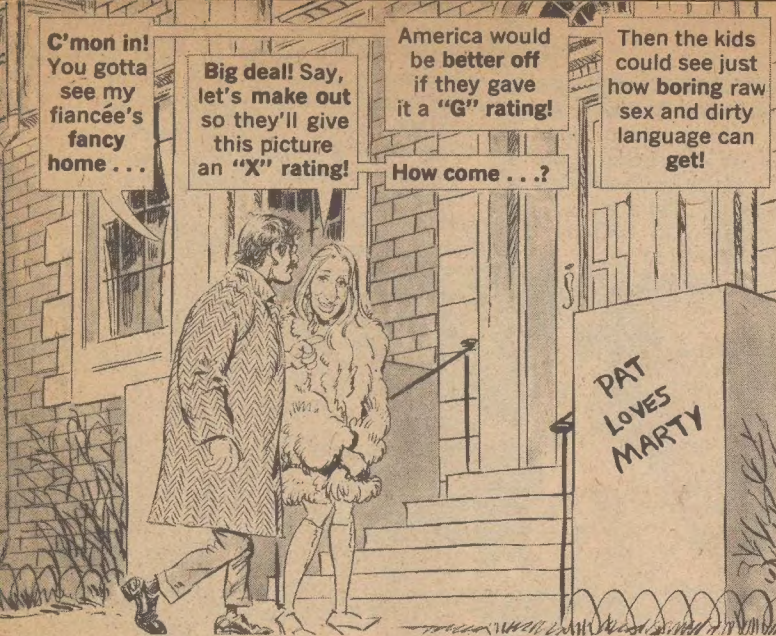

They both make me sick!

I hate the sight of them!

Listen, you guys! Do me a favor and &%$# off!

You really shouldn't talk like that to them!

Why?! Who are they? Film critics!

C'mon in!
You gotta see my fiancée's fancy home...

Big deal! Say, let's make out so they'll give this picture
an "X" rating!

America would be better off if they gave it a "G" rating!

How come...?

Then the kids could see just how boring raw sex and dirty language can get!

Have you ever smoked pot before?

It does wild things to your memory!

Like it makes you forget that you've already seen this same scene in ten other "Now" movies!

No! Why?

Like what?

There are lots of sick people around who pay me to do real nutty things!

Well, like there's "Weird Irving, The Crazy Artist"
... who likes to paint me
green from head to toe!

Yeah! Blue or red would be one thing!
But, green... that's so—so perverted!!

Like what things?

That's—that's disgusting!

What's
the meaning of this?!

It's my fiancée and her father!!

Well... if it isn't "Weird
Irving, The Crazy Artist"!

You mean... HE's
"Weird Irving"?!?

No, I mean SHE's
"Weird Irving"!!

I want to thank you!
You've done a lot for me!

No, really! You've taught me a couple of things, and I've changed drastically!

Aw, &¢%$*#@!

Changed? How?

Well, for one thing, all those big, fancy, high-falutin' words that once meant so much to me now make me sick!

Really!
And what else?

Dirty, filthy, four-letter words make me even sicker!

So long...
FOUL-MOUTH!!
